History.

Elementary School-Books.

BRADSHAW, Henry On the A B C as an Authorized Sch.-bk. in 16 cent.—in his Coll. Papers, ut B.B. K § 3.
This was a first bk. for children, contg. not only the alphabet but also the elements of relig. instr. BRADSHAW draws attention to edns. of it fr. 1538–1568, and shows that something v. like it existed down to 1852 in the Estab. Ch. of Scotl. An interesting contrib. to the hist. of mediæval schl.-bks.
FIELD, Mrs. E. M. —in her The Child and his Book: hist. and progr. of chldn.'s liter. in Engl. 6/- c 8° Wells Gardner [91] 92
Tho' this study is purely literary and fr. the outside, it is full of interest to the student of the hist. of Engl. educ. Commencing w. the earliest times (the Druids?) and passing thro' the Mid. Ages to the Puritan times, when children all became "miserable little sinners," it ends at 1826; since wh. time the author wisely refrains fr. mentioning more than a few names. Her bk. forms excellent memoires pour servir, and is very interesting.

School Life.

TUCKWELL, Rev. W. The Ancient Ways: Winchester fifty years ago; ill. (views) 4/6 ($1.50) c 8° Macmillan 93
Interesting papers on The Candlestick, The Junior, Manners and Customs, Men. An honest bk., clearly showing that 50 yrs. ago (Mr. TUCKWELL went for his election in 1842) the schl. had a tradition of slavery and did not fail to enforce it. Ld. SHERBROOKE [in his paper in Winchester College, ut supra] is almost the only other Old Wykehamist who has written candidly about the school as it was.

GIRALDUS CAMBRENSIS [=Gerald du BARRY ; 12 cent.]—ut F § 41 : Ireland.
POCOCKE, Archd. [1704-65] Tour in Ireland in 1752, ed. Dr. Geo. T. Stokes, w. intro. and notes 5/- c 8° Hodges, Dublin 91
Pococke, Archd. of Dublin, afterw. Bishop successively of Ossory and of Meath, was one of the boldest and most indefatigable travellers of the 18 cent. He had previously explored Syria, Asia Min. and Egypt, and "discovered" Switzerland for Englishmen. His Irish journey, made on horseback, extended round the whole seaboard, and his acc. of it has a good deal of interest on the geol., industries, architecture and antiquities, and scenery of the places he visited. Unlike Arthur YOUNG [ut infra] he rarely noted the social or moral cond. of the people, and has nothing to say on politics.

*YOUNG, Arthur Tour in Ireland [in 1776-9], ed. A. W. Hutton, 2 v. [Bohn's Lib.] c 8° ea. 3/6 Bell / ea. 3/ Macmillan, N.Y. [1780] 92
Apart from a repr. in PINKERTON'S Coll. of Voyages, 17 vols. 4° 1808-14, this is the first complete reprint of the 1780 edn., incl. also all the author's subseq. wrgs. on Irel'd. With a bibl. of Arthur Young by Jno. P. ANDERSON, an Index and map ill. Young's route. A most interesting and import. wk., unsurpassed in the fulness and vividness of its descr. of the state of Irel. in 1776-79.

*KNIGHT, E. F. Where Three Empires Meet; map and 54 ill. 7/6 c 8° Longman [93] 93

A lively and graphic narr. of travel (1891-92), by a shrewd observer, in Kashmir, Baltistan, Ladak, Gilgit and adjacent countries, incl. a visit to the Lamaseries of W. Tibet, an explan. of our policy in Kashmir, etc., and of the steps taken to safeguard our Indian interests. The acc. of the Hunza-Nagar campaign of 1891—in wh. author took pt. as a volunteer—is spec. useful: Mr. KNIGHT describes it as one of the most gallant things recorded in Indian warfare.

LANSDELL, Dr. Hy. Chinese Central Asia: ride to Little Tibet, 2 vols.; maps and c. 100 ill. 36/- 8° Low 93

Part of a journey of 50,000 miles to 5 of the kgdms. of Eur., 4 of Afr., and every kgdm. of Asia. Author rode on horses and yaks, at heights sometimes of 18,000 ft., fr. Lake Balkash thro' Kashgar to Little Tibet, thus crossing the entire mtn. systs. of Cent. As. The bk. treats of the whole of China outside the Great Wall fr. Manchuria to the Pamirs, and describes Chinese Turkistan in its social, military, and political conditions. With appendices on Fauna and Bibliography.

POPOWSKI, Josef The Rival Powers in Central Asia [tr. (fr. Germ.)], ed. Chas. E. D. Black, 12/6 8° Constable 93

After supplying a hist. of the advance of Russia in Asia, author aims at showing that Russia aspires to the possession of India: he then examines the polit. and strategical rels. of England and Russia, concluding that "Engl. can neither arrest the advance of Russ. in Cent. Asia, nor go to war singlehanded—without allies—with Russia with any prospect of success. An able book. Excellent folding map (25×18·5 in.) of Pamirs and pt. of Afghanistan.

BOURNE, H. R. Fox The Other Side of the Emin Pasha Expedition 6/- c 8° Chatto 91

A sort of judicial inquiry into the whole of the circumstances attending the exped., arriving at a decision decidedly unfavourable to Stanley.

BURTON, Sir Rich. —for Collected Edn. of his works v. E § 41.
CASATI, Maj. Gaetano Ten Years in Equatoria and the Return w. Emin Pasha [tr.], 2 vols. ; 4 maps, 80 col. pl. and 100 ill. 42/- ($10) m 8° Warne 91

Of no very great interest. Badly put together, and unattractively. Confirms Stanley's criticism of Emin. Maps very sketchy, and some of the illns. execrable.

GLAVE, E. J. [Am.] Six Years of Adventure in Congoland ; 75 ill. 8° $2 Russell, N.Y. / 7/6 Low 92

By one of STANLEY'S pioneer officers. Contains nothing new ; but gives some freshness to the now oft-told tale, and conts. a careful study of manners and customs.

JAMESON, Jas. S. Story of Rear Column of Em. Pasha Relief Expedition ; map, port. and 100 ill. 8° 16/- Porter / $3.50 U.S. Bk. Co., N.Y. 91

Posthumously edited by his wife, partly in vindication of him agst. STANLEY'S charge of his having provoked a horrible scene of cannibalism. Ill. v. good.

JEPHSON, A. J. Mounteney Emin Pasha and the Rebellion at Equator ; Pref. by H. M. Stanley ; map & ill. 8° 21/- Low [90] 90 / $3.75 Scribner, N.Y. 90

Acc., by one of STANLEY'S officers, of the 9 months' exper. in the "last of the Soudan provinces." Told with excellent temper and taste, self-forgetfulness and modesty.

JOHNSTON, Dr. Jas. [Am.] Reality versus Romance in South Central Africa ; maps and 51 pl. 8° $4 Chicago / 21/- Hodder 93

Across the continent fr. Benguella on the West, thro' Bihe, Ganguella, Barotse, Kalihari Desert, Mashonald., Manica, Gorongoza, Nyassa, the Shire Highlds., to mouth of Zambesi on E. coast. The main object of the journey was to test the author's "belief that black men from Jamaica, by reason of their more ready adaptability to climatic conditions and supposable racial sympathy, could be advantageously employed for the Christianization and civilization of the African savage tribes." Conts. also a good deal of keen general observation, supported by an evident desire for rigid adherence to truth. Hostile to Brit. S. Afr. Co.'s policy.

JUNKER, Dr. Wilh. Travels in Afr. dur. yrs. 1875–86 ; tr. Prf. A. H. Keane, 3 v. ; maps, pl. & ill. 63/- 8° Chapman 90–92

Now completed. Perhaps the most colossal literary achievement of any individual of the 19th century. Mr. BANCROFT [d. 1893] commenced collecting his material in 1858; and his library, for wh. he erected a fire-proof brick bldg. and wh. has constantly grown, was more thoroughly ransacked or laid under tribute than any library before it. The territory covered by the work is equivalent to one-twelfth of the earth's surface and comprizes the western half of N. Amer., incl. the whole of Mexico and Cent. Amer.

Systematic exposition and personal experiences over a long stay. A very interesting bk., contg. perhaps the best and clearest general acc. of Amer. in English. "Were I to give, in a few words, a general idea of Amer. life, I shd. say that it greatly resembles a ladder up wh. everybody is climbing, hanging on, falling, and beginning the ascent after each tumble, without wasting time in whining or deliberating on the decision to lose not a rung. Nobody thinks of stopping; nobody rests contented on any step; everyone is climbing; none are settled." But he has a real admiration for the country and the people.

DIEBITSCH-PEARY, Josephine [Am.] My Arctic Journal: a yr. among ice-fields and Eskimos; maps, pl. & ill. 12/- 8° Longman 93

The story of the exped. of the Phila. Acad. of Nat. Sciences, consisting of Lt. PEARY and his wife, w. 5 other men (one a black). They were deposited nr. entrance to Inglefield Gulf (N.-E. coast of Greenld.), spent the winter there, when PEARY w. one companion started N. in May, travelling fr. coast to coast and returning in 3 mos., having demonstrated almost conclusively that Greenld. is an island and estab. the existence of lands free fr. ice, tho' lying yet nearer the Pole. Reached home, w. aid of the Relief Exped., a yr. and a half after departure. PEARY is now on another exped., hoping to work northward over the ice fr. N. Coast of Greenld.

,, ,, Eskimo Life, tr. Wm. Archer; 16 pl. and 15 ill. 16/- ($4) 8° ,, 93

A sort of Supplemt. to above, descr. his life w. the Eskimos dur. a whole winter, in wh. he lived in their huts, took pt. in their hunting expedns. and lived their life. A sincere and direct narrative, on the whole very favourable to the Eskimos, who, in his opin., if left to themselves and freed fr. foreign influences, might yet recover themselves and the race be saved fr. the destruction now threatening it.

An interesting bk., by a capt. in the U.S. navy. The purpose of the author, who justly regrets the tendency of his countrymen dur. the last 20 yrs. to direct national energies inland and to turn away fr. the sea and maritime rule, is to show the importance of "sea-power" in the hist. of the world in 17 and 18 cents.—that is, the effect of national greatness on the sea upon national prosperity and the march of empire.

RECLUS, Elie — Primitive Folk: studies in compar. ethnol. [tr.]; port. c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. 91

A suggestive, fresh and epigrammatic work, well tr., tho' it appears as an orig. wk. written for the series of wh. it forms a part [3rd Fch. ed. appeared 1885]. The types of Primit. Folk selected are the Inoits (Esquimaux), the Apaches, the Nairs, the Todas and other Neilgherry tribes, and the Kolarians of Bengal. Accepts matriarchal theory; it is in fact his test of Primitiveness, to wh. fact may perhaps be attrib. his omission of much more prim. races than his own type (e.g. Australs., Afr. negroes, Bushmans).

SIMCOX, [Miss] Edith J. — Primitive Civilizations, 2 vols. 8° Sonnenschein / Macmillan, N. Y. 94

Wales.

LEWIS, Hubert — The Ancient Laws of Wales, [posthum.] ed. w. notes Prf. J. E. Lloyd 12/6 8° Stock [90] 92

First half of bk. consists of an exam. of those pts. of the Welsh laws wh. treat of personal status and land-tenure, remainder is taken up w. a like inquiry into nature of some old English institutions; and it is upon the similarity wh. the author sees betw. the anc. Welsh and Engl. systems that he has based his main thesis, viz., that both are developments of early British law. Methods unsound and style forbiddingly ponderous; but with much good material, the coll. of wh. took up the late author's entire life.

*VINOGRADOFF, Prf. Paul Villainage in England; w. elab. Intro., notes and appendices 8° 16/- Clar. Press; $4 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 92

An erudite and scholarly endeavour, based largely on MS. materials, to reconstruct the Engl. village of the Mid. Ages (temp. 1150–1350), to analyze the condition of the peasantry, their duties, rights, relations to their lords and to the state, to detect the processes wh. are making for their emancip. or depression and servitude. Comprizes only two essays—Peasantry of the Feudal Age and The Manor and the Village Community—of a larger wk. orig. pub. in Russian, here tr. by author himself. The two essays of the orig. not tr. are on The Domesday Book and The Saxon Epoch. Author promises two new essays in English on the Norman and pre-Norman periods, thus writing his history backwards—a natural plan.

It is a most disastrous loss to science that, owing to the death of the author, this important wk. can never be completed by him. It is a splendid subj. for a first-rate historian, and as far as it has gone is almost perfectly treated. In no other land have we in such a narrow compass so much topograph. hist. and ethnology, occupied as it has been successively by Iberians, Phœnicians, Greeks, Romans, Vandals, Arabs, Normans, Frenchmen, Spaniards, Englishmen and Italians. There is no historical hiatus, no natural line 'tween anc. and modern hist., a "unity of history" which specially suits FREEMAN'S views. The 3 vols. pub. cont. what is probably his finest work, clear, forcible, exhibiting minute acquaintance with topograph. detail and the original authorities; and having been written largely on the scene of the events described, it has abundant local colour. Vol. i. The Native Nations; the Phœnic. and Gk. Settlements; ii. From beginning of Gk. Settlemt. to beg. of Athen. Intervention; iii. The Athen. and Carthaginian Invasions [to B.C. 410-404]. Modern Writers.

OMAN, C. W. C. The Byzantine Empire ; maps, ill. and index [Story of the Nations] c 8° $1.50 Putnam, N.Y. / 5/- Unwin 92

A good popular bk. compressing the hist. of nearly 12 cents. into 350 small pp. in the spirit of FINLAY [vols. ii.-iii. 1856, ut B.B. F § 11] and BURY [1889, ut B.B. F § 12] rather than of GIBBON [1776-'88, ut B.B. F § 12], who entirely fails to recognise the great wk. performed by the East-Roman Empire in holding back the Saracen and in keeping alive throughout the Dark Ages the lamp of learning, and whose verdict no historian had ventured to dispute for ab. 80 yrs.

Constantinople : Fall of [A.D. 1453].

MIJATOVICH, Chedomil Constantine [xii.], the last Emperor of the Greeks ; ill. [w. an extens. bibliogr.] 7/6 c 8° Low 92

A fairly good study of the conquest of Constantinople by the Turks in 1453 ; in English, by the author of the Life of George Brankovich, the Despot of Servia, wh. was an attempt to whitewash that very dusky potentate—futile as a biography but full of laboriously-collected matter, of great value for the student of the last days and fall of Constantinople who can read Servian. Author was formerly Servian Minister at Court of St. James.

*PASPATÉS, Dr. A. G. The Great Palace of Constantinople, tr. (fr. Mod. Gk.) Wm. Metcalfe ; map 10/6 8° Gardner, Paisley 93

A very elaborate and valuable monograph on the locality, situation of edifices etc. of the Great Palace, wh. was the central point of Byzant. Middle Ages—the site of wh. was lost. LABARTE'S Le Palais Impérial de Constantinople [Paris, 1864 ; before excavns. had been undertaken] was the first serious attempt to locate it. Of great value for the Turkish siege of Constantinople.

Gilds.

NICOLE, Prf. Jules [ed.] Le Livre du Préfet : Greek text, w. Lat. tr. and Fch. intro. and notes 8 fr. r 4° Georg, Geneva 92

Edited fr. newly-discov. MS. at Geneva, being the Prefect's Edict issued by Emperor LEO THE WISE [886-911] regulating the Trade Guilds of Constantinople. Throws much light on the internal economy of Constant. in 9th cent., and therefore of great interest for Byzant. hist.

Goths.

THEODORIC [455-526].

Hodgkin, Dr. Thos. Theodoric the Goth, Barbarian Champion of Civilisation ; 4 maps and ill. [Heroes of Nations] $1.50 (5/-) c 8° Putnam 91

A short and readable acc. of the king of the Ostrogoths, and barbarian champion of civilisation, the result of much study. Commences w. a brief sketch of the appearances of the Goths in the plains of S. Russia, their subsequent movement and fortunes.

Normans.

JEWETT, Sarah O. [Am.] The Normans ; ill. [Story of the Nations] c 8° $1.50 Putnam, N.Y. / 5/- Unwin 91

Chiefly in rel. to Norm. Conq. Based on PALGRAVE [ut B.B. F § 19] and FREEMAN'S Norman Conquest [ut ib.]. Quite popular, and not free from padding.

A sketch of constit. hist. for nearly 2000 yrs., fr. time of Teutons of CÆSAR and TACITUS to Brit. Empire and U.S. of 1890, fr. anc. folk-moots to the mod. Parliamt. There is much confusion as to the word Anglo-Saxon here, the author appearing to regard the "English-speaking race" at large as a single people, and Anglo-Saxons, Saxons and English as synonymous terms; but the sketch is interesting and instructive. In later chaps. author points out that the hopes of freedom in future rest w. speakers of Engl. lang., and hints at possibilities of an Engl.-speaking union to comprize N. Amer., Gt. Brit., Austral. and connected states.

DE MANDEVILLE, Geoffrey

Round, J. H. — Geoffrey de Mandeville: a study of the Anarchy; w. facss. of charter 16/– ($5) 8° Longman — 92

An excellent and learned study (tho' defective in literary form) of the obscure period of the struggle betw. STEPHEN and his rival, the Empress MAUD, known as "the anarchy." He selects Geoff. de MANDEVILLE (grandson and heir of another Geoff. de MANDEVILLE, a companion of Wm. the Conqueror) as the most perfect and typical presentment of the feudal and anarchic spirit that distinguished this period, and the story (never before told) of his ambition, rapid growth of power and sudden fall, his wild revolt and dramatic end, is a very striking one. Throughout the bk. author discusses several pts. of constit. hist. and institutional developmt. [e.g. right of succession to crown, orig. and character of earldoms, judicial and fiscal systems of the time, early admin. of London], basing his work largely on charters and docums., of wh. many are new to students and some are here printed.

"MATTHEW OF WESTMINSTER" Flores Historiarum, ed. Dr. Hy. Rich. Luard, 3 vols. — ea. 10/– r 8° Rolls Series — 90

A masterly critical edn. of a work first pub. by Abp. PARKER in 1567, the authorship having been then attrib. to "MATTHEW OF WESTMINSTER," who, Dr. LUARD here convincingly shows, never had any existence but in imagination. He proves that the bk. itself was a mediæval compilation, wh. many monasteries copied and tinkered, 20 MSS. of wh. in England and 1 in the Bibl. Natl. Paris the ed. has examined, w. result that he considers all derived fr. 2 orig. authorities, one in Chetham Lib., Mancs. Tr. of England unter den Tudors: König Heinrich vii. [8° Cotta, Stuttg. '93], the first of a series of six vols. It is a masterly survey of Hy. vii's. rn., his policy as regards treaties, alliances and wars, trade and commerce, voyages of discov., industrial legislation and fiscal and juridical reforms—the most complete study (in the nature of essays rather than consecutive narrative) of the period in any language. CATHERINE OF ARAGON [1483–1536].

Froude, Prf. Jas. Anth. The Divorce of Catherine of Aragon c 8° 6/– Longman [91] 92 / $2.50 Scribner, N.Y. 91

The story as told by the Imperial Ambassadors resident at the court of Hy. viii. Its real purpose, however, is to justify Hy. viii., arguing that the divorce was a mere matter of policy and that Hy. did not fall in love w. Anne Boleyn until long after it was projected. It forms a kind of Appendix to the author's Hist. of Engl. [ut supra]—the views of Hy's. pure-minded, patriotic policy expressed in which he here, after 35 yrs'. interval, seeks to confirm: and that fr. the very class of papers wh. to historical specialists have seemed most unfavourable to Hy's. character. The title-page states that the bk. is written in usum Laicorum, wh. it has been cleverly suggested shd. be tr. "for the benefit of those who know no better." It is a brilliant, but manifest, piece of special pleading.

HARPSFIELD, Treatise of the Pretended Divorce betw. Hy. viii. & Catharine, ed. Rev. N. Pocock 5/– s 4° Camden Soc. 78

Historical Biography.

Collectively.

BARRYMORE, Earls of.

Robinson, J. R. The Last Earls of Barrymore: 1769–1824; ill. 12/6 8° Low 93

Affords an insight into the modes in wh. the aristocracy of the period were wont to enjoy themselves. Rich. BARRYMORE, 7th earl, the princ. subj. of the wk., was a famous hunting and racing man, and a "patron" of the drama.

Irish Informers.

FITZPATRICK, W. J. Secret Service under Pitt 7/6 ($4.50) 8° Longman [92] 93

A sort of commentary—industrious but unmethodical—on the secret annals of Ireland before the Union as expounded by LECKY and FROUDE, consisting of biogs. of Father O'LEARY, DUCKETT, Thos. REYNOLDS, Cpt. ARMSTRONG, Frcs. MAGAN, HIGGINS ("the sham squire") and Sam. TURNER and Leon. MCNALLY (the two arch-villains of this unlovely collection of every species of the genus spy), to whom (as well as some others) the author is very hostile. A distinct addition to our knowledge of Irish undercurrents at end of 18 cent.

ROCQUAIN, F. The Revolutionary Spirit preceding Fch. Revol., abgd. and tr. J. D. Hunting
[Social Science Ser.] c 8° 2/6 Sonnenschein / $1 Scribner, N.Y. [91] 93
Conts. an Introd. by Prof. HUXLEY. Very well abgd. and tr. by Miss HUNTING. Author's view is that the Revol. was not the outcome of the teaching of the philosophers (VOLTAIRE, DIDEROT, ROUSSEAU), as is commonly held, but was due to the ancien régime itself, w. the corruption of its Court and Church, and the despotism of the Papacy, wh. effectually undermined all respect for authority, whether civil or religious, and justified the worst that was or could be said by the philosophers later on, and his bk. clearly shows how a spirit of opposition was gradually transformed into a spirit of revolution by the middle of the century, on the point of breaking out before the philosophers came to do their wk.

*STEPHENS, H. Morse History of the French Revolution, vol. ii. [1791–93] [to occupy 5 vols.] 8° 18/- Longman / $2.50 Scribner, N.Y. 91
A marvellously painstaking and accurate work, sifting and bringing into an organic whole a vast accumulation of reports, pamphlets, monographs, études, Programme and magazine articles; his very copiousness indeed making him at times a little hard to read. Gives great prominence to the condition of the provinces. "Passionately" impartial, having no heroes, no demi-gods and no friends, Mr. Stephens belongs to the new school of historians of whom MM. Alb. SOREL and F. A. AULARD are the chief representatives. An appendix gives an elab. analysis of the sub-divisions and indiv. members of the Girondin faction.

50. HISTORY OF FRANCE (d) : SINCE THE REVOLUTION OF 1789.

Sources.

*DE MARBOT, Bar. [1782–1854] Memoirs, tr. (fr. Fch.) Arth. Jas. Butler, 2 vols. ; 9 maps and 2 ports., 32/- ($6) ; 1 vol. 7/6 ($2.50) — 8° Longman [92] 92 ; 93
The 1-vol. edn. is slightly abgd. fr. the 2-vol. edn., wh. was itself a judicious compression of the original 3 vols. (Paris 1892). MARBOT was a General of Division under NAPOLEON and later a peer of France. His Memoirs are extremely attractive and a distinct addn. to the literature of war and of adventure.

DE TALLEYRAND, Prince [1754–1838] Memoirs, ed. w. notes Duc de Broglie [tr.], 5 v. ; ports. and facss. — 8° ea. 21/- net. Griffith / ea. $2.50 Putnam, N.Y. — 91–92
These Memoirs are said by the Duc de BROGLIE to be those left by TALLEYRAND w. directions that they were not to be pub. till 50 years after his death. At request of NAPOLEON iii. in 1868, pubn. was postponed till 1890. They are on the whole very disappointing, containing very little of permanent histor. value : and their actual genuineness is very uncertain. Prf. FLAMMERMONT has pub. a pamphlet on the quest. of their authenticity, almost conclus. showing that there was an original on wh. M. de BACOURT worked, and that in a previous wk. he had completely altered letters wh. unfavourably affected the character of TALLEYRAND : the Athenæum's verdict being that it is "at least likely that de BACOURT altered TALLEYRAND'S original memoirs and then destroyed them." [G. PALLAIN'S edn. of T's. Corresp. (tr. ut BB. E § 50) is a much more truthful and more interesting wk.]. Badly tr. Vols. i.–ii. tr. by R. Ledos de BEAUFORT, v. iii.–v. by Mrs. Angus HALL.

Reign of LOUIS PHILIPPE and the Empire. On its appearance it was attrib. to Sir Rich. WALLACE, but it is really by Alb. D. VANDAM, a Dutch Jew and London journalist. It is a journalist's bk., made up fr. secondhand sources, of little historical value, but interesting, very amusing and well put together,—a dish of unlimited scandal and personal anecdote.

*TAINE, Henri A. — Contemporary France : the Modern Régime, tr. Jno. Durand [Am.], 2 vols. — 8° ea. $2.50 Holt, N.Y. / ea. 16/- Low — 91
Based on the fullest and minutest research ; contains a striking and brilliant picture of NAPOLEON'S superhuman power [v. inf. s.v. NAPOLEON]. It is, however, the history of a littérateur not of a historian, "explaining" the Revol. and all its products by attrib. it to mingled crime and madness, and scarcely attempting an impartial investigation. Forms the fifth and sixth vols. of the author's series on the Origins of Contemp. France—v. BB. F §§ 48, 49, completing the wk. The Fch. edn. is issued at 7*fr.*50 per vol. (Hachette, Paris).

Tr. by D. Forbes CAMPBELL + Jno. STEBBING, and ill. by 36 steel pl. A fine edn. of a standard, but "very French," work, a prolonged glorification of the Napoleonic age and eulogy of NAPOLEON, flattering the national vanity (to wh. characteristic it largely owes its great popularity). In later edns. events of 1870–71 very one-sidedly stated. Issued in 12 monthly vols.

Ford, Clarence — Life and Letters of Madame de Krudener; 2 ports. — 8° 15/- Black / $4.50 Macmillan, N.Y. — 93

An interesting, and careful, tho' very poorly written, acc. (the first in Engl.) of the Baronne (a Russian girl), who achieved considerable notoriety under the First Empire and in Days of the Restoration, and who later on, as a converted sinner, became a prophetess and evangelical saint, exercising a great influence over ALEX. i. of Russia (the author shows that its influence was not so great or so enduring as usually supposed). Her liter. reputn. depends on her novel Valérie [=an impassioned autobiogr. 1803], written in rivalry of Mme. de STAËL'S Delphine [1802].

DE LESSEPS, Ferd.

Smith, G. Barnett — Life and Enterprises of Ferdinand de Lesseps; 2 ports. — 7/6 c 8° W. H. Allen — 93

A clear and sensible biography, giving a temperate acc. of LESSEPS' remarkable career, as a diplomatist in St. Petersbg., Tunis, Madrid, and Rome, and of his share in the project of the Suez Canal (opened 1869), and in the disastrous Panama Canal.

LOUIS XVII. [the Dauphin; 1785–1795].

Morris, W. O'Connor — Napoleon, Warrior and Ruler, and Milit. Suprem. of Fce.; ill. [Heroes of Nations] $1.50 (5/-) c 8° Putnam — 93

An interesting, well-arrgd. sketch of the man and his extraordinary career, distinctly eulogistic but not partizan. Emphasizes the purely polit. and admin. side of N's. work—often too much ignored (espec. by Engl. writers)—and gives the best short acc. in Engl. of his services to Europe: "he contributed to the fall of the old Germ. Emp., wh. kept Germy. in the shackles of the past; he encouraged the dream of an independ. Italy; his oppression fused tog. the Teutonic race, and effaced the divisions wh. made it powerless." "United Germy. and United Italy wd. not have yet existed without his wk., and if Modern Europe is at length on the path of true progress, she is indebted to him as her creator."

An attempt to trace all forms of natl. govt. to the primeval village communities of the first races of Southern India, then showing how these southern farmers and northern hunting and pastoral tribes met in Asia Minor, "the second cradle of the civilized races," subsequently dispersing over Europe and Asia. Dwells throughout on historical importance of local botany and zoology in indicating the rise to power of the imperial races of early world.

MIVART, Dr. St. George An Introduction to the Elements of Science; ill. 6/– c 8° Osgood 93

Regarding "science" as "nothing more than plain reason and common sense used in a methodical manner, and applied to the exam. of various objects around us w. as much exactness as possible" (thus making it synon. w. "knowledge"), it consists of a series of brief sketches of Number, Mathemcs., Phys. Laws, Non-living World, Living World, Man, and a summary (Politics, Ethics and Theology not discussed). Too large a scope for a single little bk., but excellent for showing the connection betw. all the sciences. No Index.

4. PHILOSOPHY, CONNECTION AND CLASSIFICATION OF THE SCIENCES.

PEARSON, Prf. Karl The Grammar of Science [Contemporary Science Ser.] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. 92

A very interesting, valuable, and suggestive, but not wholly sound, book, whose primary object is to criticise the fundamental concepts of mod. science, its crit. ranging from "the reality of things" and "the nature of thought" to "the classif. of the sciences." Its chief merit is its expos. of the meaning of scientific law. A large pt. of bk. is devoted to destructive criticism of NEWTON, THOMSON, TAIT, MAXWELL and other of our most eminent physicists.

Elasticity.

LOVE, A. E. H. Treatise on the Mathematical Theory of Elasticity, 2 vols. 8° ea. 12/- Camb. Press / ea. $3 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 92; 93

A good example of the best type of Cambr. text-bk., going further afield than has hitherto been the case in Engl. bks. on the subj.

TODHUNTER, Dr. Is. Hist. of Theory of Elasticity and Strength of Matls., ed. Prf. Karl Pearson, v. ii. (2 pts.) 8° 30/- Camb. Press / $7.50 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

This vol. commences w. SAINT-VENANT and brings the wk. down to Lord KELVIN (Sir Wm. THOMSON), describing the more import. mod. researches, and devoting a lengthy section to the progress of technical elasticity since 1850 (espec. in bridge-structure and manuf. of ordnance).

WILLIAMSON, B. Introd. to Mathemat. Theory of Stress and Strain of Elastic Solids 5/- c 8° Longman 94

KIMBALL, Prf. Arth. L. [Am.] The Physical Properties of Gases [a good popular bk.] 12° $1.25 Houghton, Bost. / 5/- Heinemann 90

Theory.

WATSON, D. H. W. Treatise on the Kinetic Theory of Gases [Clar. Press Ser.] c 8° 4/6 Clar. Press / $1 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. [76] 93

Almost exclusively mathematical, dealing w. the ideally perfect gas, and assuming "perfect elasticity" to exist for the molecules. No index.

Matter: Properties of.

GLAZEBROOK, R. T. Laws and Properties of Matter [Modern Science Ser.] c 8° 2/6 Paul / $1 Appleton, N.Y. 93

A popular philosophic treatise of a mathem. nature on the properties of matter: forms a fairly good Introduction to Physics.

Measurements.

*EVERETT, Prf. J. D. Illustrations of the C.G.S. System of Units 5/- ($1.25) f 8° Macmillan [79] 91

The 4th edn. of a wk. [nt B.B. H § 10] orig. pub. by the Physical Soc. in a somewhat different form. Conts. much new matter, incl. determinations of viscosities, terrestr. magnetic elements, magnet. properties of iron and other metals and heat measurements. Good as a class-bk. for students as well as for the physics investigator.

HOLMAN, Silas W. Discussion of the Precision of Measurements 8° 10/- Paul / $2 Wiley, N.Y. 93

Intended mainly as a course of study for young engineers and for students of pure science. First Pt. deals w. treatmt. of direct measurements; Second, w. indirect; Third, w. determination of the best magnitudes of components. Examples.

Newton's "Principia."

BALL, Walt. W. Rouse An Essay on Newton's Principia 6/- nt. ($1.40 nt.) c 8° Macmillan 93

Not merely mathematical, as its title implies, but conts. much histor. informn. also, carefully examining the evid. bearing on the devel. of NEWTON'S great discovery, and supplying many quotns. fr. contemp. sources [several rel. to the (unfounded) claim of HOOKE]. Good bibliography, incl. foreign trs.

12. MECHANICS, HYDROSTATICS, AND HYDROKINETICS.

History of the Principles of Mechanics.

MACH, Prf. Ernst The Science of Mechanics: crit. and histor. expos. of its principles, tr. T. J. McCormick [Am.]; 250 ill. 8° $2.50 Open. Ct. Pb. Co., Chic. / 10/6 Watts & Co. 93

In its orig. ed. formed pt. of the Intern. Wissensch. Bibl. A careful acc. of the rise and growth of the ideas of great inquirers, fr. an evolutionary pt.-of-view (yet avoiding metaphys. obscurities), mechanics being treated not as a branch of mathematics but as one of the physical sciences. Fr. ARCHIMEDES [B.C. 287–212] to GRASSMANN [1809–1877]. A valuable bk. Some of the ill. are facss. of old blocks and portraits.

Collectively.

JESSOP, C. M. Elements of Applied Mathematics [Camb. Mathem. Ser.] c 8° 6/- Bell / $1.25 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 94

A careful elem. treatise on statics, dynamics and hydrostatics.

LONEY, S. L. Elements of Statics and Dynamics, Pt. i.: Statics, 4/6 ($1.25 nt.); ii.: Dynam. 3/6 ($1 nt.); in 1 vol. 7/6 ($1.90 nt.); Solutions to both, 7/6 ($1.90 nt.) f 8° Camb. Press / Macmillan, N.Y. [91] 92; 92; 93

" " Mechanics and Hydrostatics for Beginners [Pitt Press Ser.] f 8° 4/6 Camb. Press / $1.25 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

Assumes only an acquaintance w. two bks. of EUCLID and algebra to quadratic equations. A small amt. of trigonom. is given in an appendix. Clear and simple.

SELBY, A. L. Elementary Mechanics of Solids and Fluids f 8° 7/6 Clar. Press / $1.90 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 92

Statics. Mechanics.

LOCK, Rev. J. B. — Elementary Statics — 4/6 ($1.10) c 8° Macmillan — 88

*ROUTH, Dr. E. J. — Treatise on Analytical Statics, 2 vols. — [vol. i. 14/- ($3.75 nt.); ii. 10/-] 8° 24/- Camb. Press / Macmillan, N.Y. — 91 ; 92

Assumes a knowl. of the Calculus, analyt. geom. and differ. equations. An indispensable bk. to the would-be wrangler, contg. an excellent coll. of Camb. problems, w. hints for solution of most of them. Deals almost exclusively w. theoretical Statics, Graphic Statics bg. very slightly treated—a characteristic of the Cambridge school, which has been reared on the solution of problems. Vol. ii. consists of three distinct treatises: Attractions, Bending of Rods, Astatics.

SELLS, V. P. — The Mechanics of Daily Life — [Univ. Extens. Series] 2/6 c 8° Methuen — 93

Does not attempt the mathem. treatmt. generally adopted, but uses the subject as a means of scientific training and an ill. of the method of examining nature by reasoning and experiment.

ZIWET, Prf. Alex. [Am.] — Elementary Treatise on Theoretical Mechanics, 2 pts. — $4.50 nt. (17/- nt.) 8° Macmillan — 93 ; 93

WORTHINGTON, A. M. — Dynamics of Rotation ; 95 diagrs. — 3/6 ($1) c 8° Longman — 92

An elementary Introduction to Rigid Dynamics.

Perpetual Motion.

"WATERDALE" — Waterdale Researches: fresh light on dynamics — 5/- c 8° Chapman — 92

Claims to have invented a (complicated but ingenious) hydrodynamic machine (descr. in body of bk.) by wh. the "undoubted theoretical possibilty of perpetual motion" is attained. Acknowledges that his wk. would "require at least a month's hard work to comprehend"—wh. were better otherwise employed.

Hydrostatics. Hydrodynamics.

BASSET, A. B. — Elementary Treatise on Hydrodynamics and Sound — 7/6 c 8° Deighton, Camb. — 91

An elementary edn. of his Treatise on Hydrodynamics, ut B.B. H § 12.

Musical Acoustics —v. I § 125.

Voice Figures.

HUGHES, Mrs. Watts — Voice Figures ; 24 pl. and ill. — 2/- c 8° Hazell — 91

A pop. yet scientific little bk. on discov. (by CHLADNI, who c. 100 yrs. ago was the 1st to show the intimate conn. betw. Sound and Form) and produn. of the forms produced by the human voice; it offers, however, no explan. why, among all possible forms, the notes shd. wed themselves to some of the most familiar and beautiful forms of Nature (flowers, etc.). Author produces her results by causing elastic membrane to pulsate by means of human voice, the delicate vibrns. of wh. record and register themselves in several ways, and she has thus obtd. forms for the differ. notes of the scale, and shows that these forms vary w. substance used for producg. figs., w. quality of membrane and w. pitch, intensity etc. of vocal note. Qy. Magic or Science (or Delusion)?

14. OPTICS.

Generally.

BASSET, A. B. — A Treatise on Physical Optics — 16/- 8° Deighton, Camb. — 92

Conts. a good deal of matter not found in the usual text-bks.; but not a wholly satisfactory bk. for the student. Incl. numerous Camb. Tripos problems.

GLAZEBROOK, R. T. — Light — [Camb. Nat. Science Manls.] c 8° 3/- Camb. Press / $1 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. — 94

*PRESTON, Prf. Thos. — The Theory of Light ; ill. — 12/6 ($3.25) ; adv. to 15/- ($5) 8° Macmillan — 90

An accurate and connected acc. and digest of the more import. opt. researches fr. earliest times tow. the foundation and extension of the wave-theory. Last chap. devoted to the recent brilliant experim. confirmation by Prf. HERTZ of CLERK-MAXWELL'S theory that electric and electro-magnetic disturbances are referable to intervention of the same all-pervading medium wh. forms the vehicle by wh. energy passes thro' space fr. one body to another, wh. brings light and heat fr. the sun, and to wh. we now look for a knowl. of the process by wh. one body is enabled to attract another, as well as for an explan. of the ultimate constitution of matter itself.

STEWART, Dr. R. W. — Text-Book of Light — [Univ. Corresp. Coll. Tutorial Ser.] 3/6 f 8° Clive — [90] 94

Popular Books.

JOHNSON, [Miss] Amy — Sunshine ; profusely ill. — 6/- ($1.75) c 8° Macmillan — 92

On the phenomena of light, treated experimentally in the simplest fashion for children. The first of a series to be called Nature's Story-books.

WOOD, Sir H. Trueman — Light ; 86 ill. — [Lib. of Pop. Science] c 8° 2/6 Whittaker / 75*c.* Macmillan, N.Y. — 91

Single Vision.

WYLD, Dr. Rob. S. — —in his The Physics and Philosophy of the Senses o.p. [pb. 16/- ; w. 7/6] 8° King (Paul) — 75

Propounds his theory of a single vision, anticipated (so far as priority of pubn. was concerned, but arrived at by indep. experimts.) by Prf. H. HELMHOLTZ.

15. HEAT.

ALEXANDER, Peter — Treatise on Thermodynamics — [of very small value] 5/- c 8° Longman 92

CARNOT, M. F. S. — Reflections on the Motive Power of Heat and on Machines fitted to develop that Power [tr. fr. Fch.], ed. R. H. Thurston [Am.]; port. — 12° $2 Wiley, N.Y. / 7/6 Macmillan, Lond. 90

A tr. of the remarkable Reflexions, to wh. is appended the celebrated paper by Sir Wm. THOMSON [now Ld. KELVIN], Account of Carnot's Theory, in wh. he first pointed out to the world the treasure so long concealed since first quarter of 19 cent.

GLAZEBROOK, R. T. — Heat — [Camb. Nat. Science Manls.] c 8° 3/- Camb. Press / $1 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 94

PARKER, J. — Elementary Thermodynamics — 9/- c 8° Camb. Press 91

*PRESTON, Prf. Thos. — The Theory of Heat — 17/- nt. ($5.50 nt.) 8° Macmillan 94

A comprehensive treatise, both experimental and theoretical, of great value, and of general interest—the whole subj. being throughout kept in view rather than (and sometimes at the expense of) the requiremts. of an exam. After a prelim. sketch, deals w. Thermometry, Dilatation, Calorimetry, Change of State, Radiation and Absorption, Conduction, and Thermodynamics.

Theoretical Chemistry (Chemical Physics).

CARNEGIE, Douglas — Law and Theory in Chemistry: a companion for students — 6/- — c 8° — Longman — 94

MENDELÉEFF, Prf. D. — Princ. of Chemis., tr. [fr. Russ.] G. Kamensky; ed. A. J. Greenaway, 2 v.; 97 ill. — 36/- Longman 91 / $10 Van Nostrand, N.Y. 92 — 8°

Two portly vols. of 1100 pp., the leading facts and theories hg. given in large type, whilst a long series of ample footnotes in small type (occupying perhaps ½ the matter of the bk.) give fuller materials and more recondite discussions for the advanced student.

MEYER, Prf. Lothar — Outl. of Theoret. Chemis., tr. Prfs. P. P. Bedson+W. C. Williams — 9/- ($2.50) — 8° — Longman — 92

A compendious digest, dealing w. most of the subj. treated in the older manuals under the general designation of Chemical Physics, tog. w. cognate matters wh. the progress of research has brought into prominence.

NERNST, Prf. — Theoretical Chemistry, tr. Prf. Chas. Skeele Palmer [Am.] — 8° — Macmillan — in prep.

OSTWALD, Prf. Wilh. — Outlines of General Chemistry, tr. Dr. Jas. Walker — 10/- nt. ($3.50) — 8° — ,, — 91

Gives prominence to the exposition of the epoch-making theories of solution and electrolytic dissociation, due respectively to VAN 'T HOFF and ARRHENIUS.

,, ,, Solutions, tr. M. M. Pattison Muir [tr. of bk. 4 of his Lehrb. d. allg. Chem.] — 10/6 ($3) — 8° — Longman — 91

Discusses the phenomena and laws of solution of gases in gases and liquids, of solution of liquids and of solids in liquids, of osmose, of diffusion, of the vapour-pressures and freezing-pts. of solutions, of salt-solutions, etc. A suggestive but rather one-sided bk., to be read w. caution by the uninitiated student.

SCOTT, Dr. Alex. — Introduction to Chemical Theory — c 8° — 5/- Black / $1.25 Macmillan — 91

An accurate little bk., treating of constit. of matter, atomic and molecular weights, classif. of elements of compounds, vapour densities and dissociation, phys. props. of compds., thermo-chem., chem. charge, solution, and electrolysis.

VAN 'T HOFF — Chemistry in Space, tr. J. E. Marsh; diagrs. — [Clar. Press Series] — c 8° — 4/6 Clar. Press / $1.10 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. — 91

A tr. of Dix Années dans l'Histoire d'une Théorie, giving a clear and full account of the theory of Solutions, founded by the author, and forming one of the latest and most brilliant developments of theoretic organic chemistry.

WIECHMANN, F. G. [Am.] — Lecture-Notes on Theoretical Chemistry; ill. — [useful student's book] — c 8° — Wiley, N.Y. / 12/6 Gay & Bird — 93

Atomic Theory.

Foundations of the Atomic Theory — [Alembic Club Reprints] — 1/6 nt. — c 8° — Clay, Edin. — [02-08] 93

Papers and extracts by Jno. DALTON, Dr. Wm. Hyde WOLLASTON, and Dr. Thos. THOMSON.

Chemical Calculations.

WHITELEY, R. Lloyd — Chemical Calculations; w. explan. notes, problems and answers — 2/- — c 8° — Longman — 92

A good seln. of arithmet. examples, w. directns. for solving them, preceded by a summary of chem. facts or processes to wh. they refer.

Gases

—v. H § 10.

19. PRACTICAL AND EXPERIMENTAL CHEMISTRY.

COOKE, Prf. Josiah P. [Am.] Laboratory Practice 12° $1 Appleton, N.Y. 91 / 5/- Paul 92

A ser. of experiments on fundamental principles of Chem., forming a comp. vol. to his The New Chemistry [ut B.B. H § 17].

EARL, A. G. The Elements of Laboratory Work: a course of nat. science [physics and chem.]—ut H § 11.

*NEWTH, G. S. Chemical Lecture Experiments (non-metallic elements); 224 ill. 10/6 ($3) 8° Longman 92

A very useful bk. for the lecture assistant. Describes clearly 620 good experiments, nearly all of which, both ordinary and extraordinary, may be carried out with little cost and without great trouble.

Organic.

STREATFEILD, F. W. Practical Work in Organic Chemistry; ill. [Finsbury Tech. Manls.] 3/- ($1.25) c 8° Spon 91

20. ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY.

MUTER, Jno. Short Manual of Analytical Chemistry 6/6 r 8° Simpkin [2nd ed. 79] 92

Qualitative Analysis. Blowpipe.

ENDLICH, F. M. Manual of Qualitative Blowpipe Analysis & Determinative Mineral.; ill. $4 8° Scientific Pb. Co., N.Y. 92

LETTS, Prf. E. A. Qualit. Analysis Tables and Reactions of certain Organic Substances 7/- nt. ($3 nt.) 4° Macmillan 92

Quantitative Analysis.

Agricultural Analysis—v. I § 27 | Commercial Analysis—v. I § 54 | Spectrum, Solar—v. H § 22.

VII. Astronomy.

21. GENERAL ASTRONOMY: HISTORY. BIOGRAPHY. TREATISES.

Bibliography.

Astronomical Soc., Royal: Catalogue of the Library [by W. H. Westley] 10/- 8° R. Astron. Soc. 86

Contains 7,000 titles exclusive of cross references and lists of the contents of important series of Reports of Observatories.

History.

BERRY, Arth. The History of Astronomy [Univ. Extens. Manuals] p 8° Murray / Scribner, N.Y. in prep.

Ancient: Egypt.

*LOCKYER, Prf. J. Norman The Dawn of Astronomy; ill. 21/- 8° Cassell 94

A study of the temple-worship and mythol. of the anc. Egyptns., claiming to show that Egypt. temples were built so as to secure observns. of the sun and stars at certain times of yr., and seeking to determine the stars so used, to find the astron. ideas underlying the observns. and to trace some of the myths wh. arose out of them. With the exception of Prf. NISSEN, Prf. LOCKYER is the first to have suggested that the temples were oriented on an astronom. basis, a conclusion which—if generally accepted—will give a new complexion to the future study of Egyptology.

Biography.

Collectively.

LODGE, Prf. Oliver Pioneers of Science; 120 ill. [pop. sketches in hist. of astron.] 7/6 ($2.50) c 8° Macmillan 92

A course of lects. on epoch-mkg. men (chiefly in astron.). 1st pt. consists of lects. on men fr. Copernicus to Newton (esp. Tycho Brahe, Kepler, Galileo, Descartes); 2nd pt. of 9 lects. on Velocity of Light, Herschel and the Stars, Discoveries of Asteroids and of Neptune, Comets and Meteors, the Tides, etc., w. biogr. details and full scientific exposition, addressed to persons of literary education.

Individually.

BRAHE, Tycho [1546-1601].

Dreyer, J. L. E. Tycho Brahe: a picture of scient. life and wk. in 16 cent. 8° 12/6 Black 90 / $3.50 Macmillan, N.Y. 91

HAMILTON, Sir Wm. Rowan [1805-1865].

Graves, Dr. Rob. Perc. Addendum to the Life of Sir W. R. Hamilton [ut B.B. H § 21] 6*d.* 8° Univ. Press (Hodges) Dublin 92

Repr. of letters, suggested by article, Hamilton in Dict. of Natl. Biogr., to The Athenæum.

WEBB, Preb. T. W.

Espin, Rev. T. E. Memoir of Rev. T. W. Webb—in his edn. of Webb's Celestial Objects, ut infra.

Atlas.

BALL, Sir Rob. S. [ed.] An Atlas of Astronomy: 72 maps, w. introd. and explan. notes 15/- s 4° Philip 93

An excellent atlas, well adapted for use of the serious student w. a small telescope.

H § 22

Dictionary of Terms.

GORE, J. E. An Astronomical Glossary 2/6 c 8° Lockwood 93
A dict. of terms, w. tables of data and lists of remarkable or interesting celestial objects.

General Treatises.

BALL, Sir Rob. S. In the High Heavens; col. front., and ill. 8° 7/6 Isbister / $2.50 Lippincott, Phila. 93
An attractive popular account, in 23 chaps., of the most striking mod. discovs.; repr. fr. Good Words.

CHALLIS, Rev. Jas. Lectures on Practical Astronomy and Astronomical Instruments 10/- 8° Bell 79

CHAMBERS, G. F. Pictorial Astronomy; 134 ill. [Lib. of Popular Science] c 8° 4/- Whittaker / $1.25 Macmillan, N.Y. [91] 93
A good intro. to astronomy, intended for those who have no previous practical acquaintance w. the science.

DENNING, Wm. F. Telescopic Work for Starlight Evenings; 2 pl. and 65 cuts 10/- 8° Taylor & Francis 91

DUNKIN, Edwin The Midnight Sky: notes on stars and planets; 32 star maps and ill. 8/- i 8° R.T.S. [69] 91

*GORE, J. Ellard The Visible Universe: chaps. on orig. and constr. of heavens; 18 pl. 8° 16/- Lockwood / $3.75 Macmillan, N.Y. 92
A very good and lucid summary and discussion of recent theory, regarding the constr. of the heavens (the knowl. of wh. was stated by Sir Wm. HERSCHEL to be the ultimate object of his observns.); w. a series of 6 excellent stellar photos. and 12 litho. pl. and figs. Chaps. i.-iv. on evol. of solar syst. and orig. of solar heat; v. on luminiferous ether; vi. on supposed constit. of matter; vii. on celestial chemistry; ix.-xviii. descr. the constr. of the sidereal heavens, and the var. theories as to constr. of universe.

HOPKINS, B. J. Astronomy for Every-day Readers; ill. c 8° 1/- Philip / 50c. Whittaker, N.Y. 93
By a self-educ. man, who at the age of 14 had formed a theory on comets, wh. Prf. STOKES thought worthy of a corresp. Born in 1862, Ld. LINDSAY gave him a telescope in 1877: in 1882 he wrote on the great comet of that yr., and in 1883 he was elected a F.R.A.S. His bk. is readable and clear, explg. such celest. phenomena as shd. be known to every person (day and night, phases of moon, tides, seasons, eclipses, meteors, shooting stars, and comets). Descriptive astron. not touched on.

LYNN, Wm. T. Celestial Motions: a handy book on astronomy; 3 pl. 2/- f 8° Stanford [84] 94

MEE, Arth. Observational Astronomy; profusely ill. 2/6 4° Owen, Cardiff 93
Very useful for young amateurs; should be used in conn. w. a good elem. text-bk.

PROCTOR, Rich. A. Old & New Astronomy, completed A. Cowper Ranyard; 31 pl. & 472 cuts 36/- ($12) 4° Longman [88-] 92
Pubn. w commenced w. Pt. i. in Mch. '88, and contin. by Mr. PROCTOR to Pt. vi., when he died (Sept. '88). Completion [ab. one-fifth of bk.] made by RANYARD, Pt. xiii. [Appendix] bg. issued in 1893. An excellent explan. and histor. résumé of mod. results; popular, lucid and copious, but—strange to say—meteors and comets are not dealt with. PROCTOR'S portion is rather disproportioned and marred by his usual personalities and comparatively unimport. details. Well ill.

*WEBB, Preb. Thos. W. Celestial Objects for Common Telescopes [ut B.B. H § 21], ed. Rev. T. E*r* Espin, vol. i. 6/- c 8° Longman [6-] 93
First vol. of an improved (5th) edn of a bk. which is almost a sine qud non to amateurs; conts. port., 2 pl. and numerous ill. To occupy 2 vols.

WILLIAMS, Jos. W. The Telescope; ill. [Young Collector Series] 1/- c 8° Sonnenschein 91
A concise and clear popular introduction to astronomy.

YOUNG, Prf. Chas. A. [Am.] Lessons in Astronomy, incl. Uranography; ill. and 4 star maps c 8° $1.30 Ginn, Boston / 6/- Arnold 91

Geodesy —v. I § 7.

Mathematical Astronomy.

BARLOW + BRYANT, C. W. C. / G. H. Elementary Mathematical Astronomy; diagrs. [University Corresp. Coll. Tutorial Ser.] 8/6 c 8° Clive [92] 93
A text-bk. for the London B.A. and B.Sc. degrees, w. exx. and answers. A good bk., clear and lucid, involving only a small mathemat. knowl.

Observations.

Origin of Cosmic Systems.

*LOCKYER, Prf. J. Norman The Meteoric Hypothesis of the Origin of Cosmical Systems; ill. 17/- nt. ($5.25) 8° Macmillan 90
An attempt to reduce to one common denomination all the varied orders of bodies wh. the heavens present to the view—all, acc. to Mr. LOCKYER, alike composed of meteorites, the chief differences bg. due to either the degree of aggregation of the meteorites in the swarm, or, in the case of consolidated swarms, to the time elapsed since their complete evaporization. The evidences for the successive stages of cosmic evolution are found in a multitude of spectroscopic observations, here lucidly discussed and co-ordinated.

22. SOLAR SYSTEM.

Sun.

*BALL, Sir Rob. S. The Story of the Sun; 8 col. pl. and ill. 21/- r 8° Cassell 94
Like Sir Rob. BALL'S other bks., a popular bk., in its best sense, giving a vivid picture of the nature of the great luminary. Its chief novelty is its applicn. of molecular physics to the explan. of the sustenance of the solar heat.

Spectrum and Spectroscope.

ABNEY, Cpt. W. de W. Solar Spectrum [Philosoph. Transactns. Royal Soc.] 3/- 4° Philosoph. Soc. (Paul) 87

HIGGS, Geo. A Photographic Atlas of the Normal Solar Spectrum prices nt. Auth., West Derby Rd. Liverpool 93
Over 100 maps, extending fr. λ 2990 in the ultra violet to λ 8345 in the invisible red end. Atmospheric regions repres. under all possible condns. of solar altitude, temperature, and humidity. In 44 pts., 4 diameters, £8 8s.; in 45 pts., 2 diams., £3 3s.; in 15 pts., orig. size, 21/-.

H §§ 24–26

McLean, Fk. Compar. Photogr. Spectra of the High Sun and Low Sun : 5 pl. 10/– nt. 16¾ × 19¾ Stanford 92
From (H) to (A); showing the atmospheric absorption-bands, sections i.–xiii.

Lockyer, Prf. J. N. Researches in Spectrum Analysis, nos. 1–5 [Philos. Trans. Royal Soc.] 4° Royal Soc. (Paul)

McLean, Fk. Compar. Photogr. Spectra of the Sun and the Metals 20/– nt. 16¾ × 19¾ Stanford 92
Extending from above (H) to near (D).

Comets.

Lynn, Wm. T. Remarkable Comets [interesting facts in hist. of cometary astron.] 6*d.* 8° Stanford 93

24. STELLAR SYSTEM.

Ball, Sir Rob. S. In Starry Realms : the wonders of the heavens ; ill. 8° 7/6 Isbister / $2.50 Lippincott, Phila. 92

*Clerke, [Miss] Agnes M. The System of the Stars ; 6 pl. and 50 cuts 21/– ($7) 8° Longman 90

Gore, J. Ellard Star Groups : a student's guide to the constellations ; 30 maps and text 5/– s 4° Lockwood 91
A good knowledge of the principal constellations may be easily acquired from the use of this book.

Pritchard, Prf. Chas. Uranometria Nova Oxoniensis 8/6 r 8° Clar. Press 85
A photometric determination of magnitudes of all stars visible by naked eye fr. Pole to 10 degs. S. of equator.

Meteoric Hypothesis—v. H § 21 (*Lockyer).

Planets.

Jupiter.

Clerke, [Miss] Ellen M. Jupiter and his System [results of latest observns.] 1/– 8° Stanford 92

VIII. Physiography and Meteorology.

25. PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY: GENERALLY.

Arnold-Foster, H. O. This World of Ours ; ill. 3/6 c 8° Cassell 92
A vivid, clear and stimulating little bk. on the physical geography of the earth.

Conn, Prf. H. W. [Am.] The Living World : whence it came, whither it is drifting $1.25 (5/–) p 8° Putnam 91
A useful little bk. ; semi-scientific, involving some prelim. knowl. of biology and geology. Deals w. nature of protoplasm, orig. of animal kingdom, past hist. of plant and anim. life on the earth.

Geikie, Prf. Jas. —in his Fragments of Earth Lore, ut H § 31.

Harrison + Wakefield, W. J. / H. R. Earth Knowledge ; a text-bk. of physiography; ill. [Science Text-bks.] 3/– f 8° Blackie 93

Hinman, Russell [Am.] Eclectic Physical Geography ; maps, charts and ill. $1 nt. Am. Bk. Co., Cincinn. 88 / 5/– Low 91
A very good elementary book ; perhaps the best in the English language.

Kerman + Klein + Thomé, Dr. J. ; J. / Dr. O. W. God's Glorious Creation [tr.] ; ill. 7/6 r 8° Ward & Lock 92 popular bk. on the marvels of earth, sea and sky.

Lubbock, Sir Jno. The Beauties of Nature & the Wonders of the World we live in; *c.*70 ill. 6/–($1.50) c 8° Macmillan [92] 93
Intended to open the eyes of non-scientific persons to the beauties and wonders of earth, sky and sea. Very pleasantly written, introducing the reader to many of the leading discovs. of the last half cent. in animal and plant life and in physics and astronomy. Cheap Edn. 1/–, cf. 1/6, '94.

Mill, Hugh R. The Realm of Nature ; 19 col. maps and 68 ill. [Univ. Extens. Manls.] c 8° 5/- Murray / $1.50 nt. Scribner, N.Y. 92
A very good little bk., furnishing much information, quite up to date, in a very readable form.

Skertchly, S. B. J. Physical System of the Universe o.p. [pb. 7/6] c 8° Daldy 78

Thornton, J. Advanced Physiography; 6 maps, 180 ill. & col. spectra [Advanced Sci. Manls.] 4/6($1.40) c 8° Longman 90

Bartholomew, Jno. G. Physical Atlas [based on Berghaus' Atlas] in prep.

Johnston, W. & A. K. [pubs.] Atlas of Physical Geography 12/6 4° Johnston [ ] 92
24 double-page col. maps, ill. the elem. facts of cartography (1 map), geol. (16), topogr. (6), hydrol. (4), meteorol. and nat. hist. (3). In this edn. 9 maps are new, and the rest thoroughly revised, rendering the wk. practically a new one. 52 pp. of text.

26. OROGRAPHY (MOUNTAINS, VALLEYS, RIVERS).

Mountains.

Hutchinson, Rev. H. N. The Story of the Hills ; ill. c 8° 5/- Seeley / $1.50 Macmillan, N.Y. 91
A clear, accurate and interesting bk., chiefly geological, tho' the earlier pt. conts. a sketch of the meteorol. of mountainous districts.

H §§ 27-29

27. THE OCEAN.

Tides. Currents.

BALL, Sir Rob. S. Time and Tide : a romance of the moon ; ill. [Romance of Science] 2/6 p 8° S.P.C.K. [89] 93
The substance of two lects. deliv. at Lond. Instit. in Nov. 1888, giving an admirable acc. of theory of tidal evolution.

JORDAN, Wm. Leighton The Ocean : a treatise on ocean currents and tides and their causes 21/- 8° Longman [81] 91

Waves.

SCOTT-RUSSELL, J. The Wave of Translation in Oceans of Water, Air and Ether 12/6 8° Trübner (Paul) 85
With a Report on Waves made by author to the British Association in 1842-43.

28. VOLCANOES AND EARTHQUAKES.

DANA, Prf. Jas. D. [Am.] Characteristics of Volcanoes ; maps and ill. r 8° $5 Dodd & Mead, N.Y. / 18/- Low 90
W. contribs. of facts and principles fr. the Hawaiian Isl., the volcan. action of wh. dur. last 67 yrs. is fully reviewed. Discusses also rel. of volc. islands to deep-sea topogr., and volc. island denudation.

HULL, Prf. Edw. Volcanoes, Past and Present [Contemporary Science Series] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N.Y. 92
A useful summary of recent conclusions w. regard to the phenomena and origin of volcanic action : systematic rather than "popular."

Europe : Italy.

JOHNSTON-LAVIS, Dr. H. J. [ed.] The South Italian Volcanoes ; 16 good photos. s 4° Naples (15/- Low) 91
Acc. of excursion made by Engl. and other geologists in 1889, w. papers by the Edr., G. PLATANIA, Dr. L. SAMBON, P. ZEZI, and Mme. Antonia LAVIS, incl. a bibliogr. of the volcanic districts.

,, ,, Geological Map of Monte Somma and Vesuvius ; w. letterpr. descr. 42/- nt. Philip 91
Mr. JOHNSTON-LAVIS, who went to live in Naples c. 1879, is said to be at wk. on a large bk. on Vesuv. and M. Somma.

Asia : Japan.

*BONNEY, Prf. T. G. The Story of our Planet; 6 col. pl. and maps, and c. 100 ill. 31/6 8° Cassell 94

An excellent and comprehensive popular wk.; well got-up.

DAWSON, Sir J. Wm. [Canad.] Some Salient Points in the Science of the Earth; 46 ill. 7/6 c 8° Hodder 93

18 essays, covering many important geolog. subjects, summing up the veteran geologist's views, wh. remain (as they have always been) uncompromizingly and dogmatically anti-evolutionist. As a forcible ex-parte statemt. of the conclusions of the geologists of the older schl. the bk. has permanent value, and is very interesting reading.

,, Prf. Jas. Fragmts. of Earth Lore: sketches & addr., geol. & geograph.; maps & ill. 12/6 8° Bartholomew, Edin. 93

Together form a more or less connected wk. on the origin of the present surface features of the world in general, and of Scotld. in particular. The author's well-known views on glacial action occupy 8 papers, supplem. by a geogr. essay discussing some aspects of the question of earth movemts., wh. are obviously closely conn. w. the theoret. explans. of climatical change. Most of the papers are controversial, and somewhat didactic in tone.

POYNTING, Prf. J. H. The Mean Density of the Earth; ill. and 7 folding pl. 12/6 l 8° Griffin 94

A good monograph; w. a bibliography. Adams Prize Essay (Cambridge) 1893.

Great Ice Age [when ice covered quite generally both the temperate and the tropical areas of earth].

BALL, Sir Rob. S. The Cause of an Ice Age [Modern Science] c 8° 2/6 Paul / $1 Appleton, N.Y. 92

An attractive and lucid popular bk., somewhat more controversial than expository, however. Finds the "cause" in astronomical facts, and puts the case most persuasively; but the "general reader" had better keep his mind still open.

DAWSON, Sir J. Wm. [Canad.] The Canadian Ice Age Dawson, Montreal / 10/- Scientific Pb. Co. 94

HOWORTH, Sir Hy. H. The Glacial Nightmare and the Flood, 2 vols. 30/- 8° Low 93

"A Second Appeal to Common Sense fr. the Extravagance of some recent Geology," the first having been his Mammoth and the Flood [ut 16.16. A § 131]. Begins w. acc. of the various theories put forw. to expl. drift phenomena (condensing a large body of liter.), proceeding to criticise the most extreme glacial views of recent times and to call in question the theory of uniformity as devel. by followers of LYELL and RAMSAY, and espec. to attack the notion that ice is capable of distributing materials over hundreds of miles of level countries and of producing many of the effects attrib. to it. A monumental and clever controversial bk. of great value as a cyclopædia of facts and arguments.; but the schl. at wh. it is aimed is so small as to be scarcely worth such a large expenditure of powder and shot.

After reviewing recent explans., goes back to the idea of the decrease in the orig. heating of the globe, and on that builds up a plausible theory.

WRIGHT, Prf. G. Fredk. [Am.] Man and the Glacial Period; maps and 111 ill. [Internat. Scient. Ser.] c 8° 5/- Paul / $1.75 Appleton, N. Y. 92

A readable but scarcely authoritative popular bk., dealing w. the broad question of man's entire relation to the glacial period in Europe and in America. The chief interest of the bk. centres in the chap. in wh. he discusses the evidence of man's existence dur. glacial period, espec. in N. Amer. Prf. HAYNES contribs. appendix on Tertiary Man.

Extinct Monsters.

HUTCHINSON, Rev. H. N. Extinct Monsters; 24 ill. 8° 12/- Chapman [92] 93 / $3 Appleton, N. Y. 92

A really valuable acc., clearly and simply written, of some of the larger forms of extinct animal life, based on the results of discovs. of MARSH, GAUDRY, COPE and FILHOL; w. a series of 24 restorations of antediluvian saurians and mammals drawn chiefly by J. SMIT, but for the most part from the restorations of skeletons made by Prf. MARSH. The dimensions of the restorations are however doubtful, to one type being given the maximum height to which the bones can be hoisted, to another the maximum length to which they can be extended.

Tr. and ed. E. B. POULTON+Dr. Selmar SCHÖNLAND+A. E. SHIPLEY. Probably the most important contrib. to speculative biology since The Origin of Species, wh., even if little of it ultimately becomes incorporated in the body of accepted knowledge, will at least play an important pt. in guiding and stimulating research along fruitful lines. Vol. i. of this 2nd edn. conts. all that appeared in the 1st edn. [ut B.B. H § 42]; vol. ii. conts. 4 new essays: (1) Retrogressive Development. in Nature, (2) Thoughts on the Musical Sense in Animals and Men, (3) Remarks on Certain Problems of the Day, (4) Amphimixis, or the Essential Meaning of Conjugation and Sexual Reproduction.

,, ,, The Germ Plasm: a theory of heredity, tr. Dr. W. N. Parker; 24 ill. c 8° 6/- Walter Scott / $2.50 Scribner, N.Y. 93

Conts. the first complete statemt. of WEISMANN'S theory of heredity—the opposite of DARWIN'S pangenesis, viz. that of the Continuity of Germ-plasm, assuming that no part of the parent organism generates any of the formulative material wh. is to constitute the new organism, but that on the contrary this material stands to the rest of the body in much the same rel. as parasite to host, that in each generation a small portion of this substance is told off to develop a new body and nourish the ever-growing and never-dying germ plasm, and that this formative material (or germ-plasm) has been continuous thro' all generations of successively perishing bodies.

Alternation of Generations.

BUTLER, Sam. Life and Habit 7/6 c 8° Longman [77] 90

,, ,, Selections from Previous Works [ut B.B. H § 43, etc.] 7/6 c 8° ,, 90

Its main thesis is the general doctrine of the continuity of life—as a completion of the Darwinian theory. Its methods and results are somewhat similar to those of Ed. v. HARTMANN.

CALDERWOOD, Prf. Hy. Evolution and Man's Place in Nature 7/6 ($2) c 8° Macmillan 93

An interesting and suggestive attempt, fr. the pt. of view of a non-professional scientist, a Scottish Prf. of Moral Philos. (1) to explain the theory of evol. in its present highly devel. condn., and (2) to show the limits of its applicn., and to vindicate the rational and spiritual life of man as a Moral Agent. Accepts princ. of evol. as far as physical man is concerned, and is throughout "conciliatory," tho' contending for the indequacy of evol. to account for mental phenomena.

ROMANES, Dr. Geo. J. Darwin and After Darwin, pt. i.; port. and 125 ill. c 8° 10/6 Longman / $2 Open Ct. Pb. Co., Chicago 92

Pt. i. The Darwinian Theory, to be followed by a second Pt. Post-Darwinian Questions. The first Pt. forms a condensed and crit. systematic statemt. of the evidences of evol. as a fact, and of natural seln. (incl. sexual seln.) as a method, restricted to the Darwinian epoch (i.e. fr. pub. of Orig. of Species in 1859 to DARWIN'S d. in 1882), and intended to be a text-bk. of Darw. teaching as left by DARWIN, but incl. a good deal of the Darwinism of ROMANES himself. Pt. ii. is to treat in a similar spirit w. the decade fr. 1882 to 1892, its chief topics being heredity (incl. elabor. exam. of WEISMANN'S views—v. H § 42), utility, isolation, physiolog. seln., etc. Illns. mostly original.

STIRLING, Dr. J. Hutchinson Darwinianism : workmen and work 10/6 8° Clark, Edin. 93

An interesting acc. of the Workmen (Dr. Thos. BROWN, Dr. Erasm. DARWIN, Dr. Rob. Waring DARWIN, Chas. DARWIN, ea. psychol. characterized), and of their Work (an exam. of their writings, and a minute and system. criticism of theory of nat. seln., full of suggestion and often making points). The wk is virtually a developmt. of the concl. chaps. of author's Gifford Lects., Philos. and Theol. [ut A § 7]. While rejecting D's. theory, author admits that there is a true theory of evol., which is more "according to HEGEL."

An acc. (by the Prosector of Zool. Soc. WALLACE in his Darwinism [ut B.B. H § 43], showing pretty conclusively that nat. seln. is not the universal solvent for the problems of anim. colorn. Last chap. is a striking and impartial summary of the facts of sexual dimorphism in colour, form, etc., giving argumts. for and agst. the several theories wh. profess to explain them.

Cirripedia: Apoda.

BERNARD, Hy. Meyners The Apodidæ: a morphological study; 71 ill. [Nature Series] 7/6 ($2) c 8° Macmillan 92
Claims to show that the apodidæ form a true connecting link betw. the living crustacea and the annelida, having been originally derived fr. a carnivorous annelid wh. acquired the habit of browsing, w. the first 5 segments of the body bent round, wh. finally became fused together into a new form of head. Highly speculative, and rather special, but may be read w. interest by all who care to follow the progress of philosophical nat. hist.

Epidemics.

*CREIGHTON, Dr. Chas. History of Epidemics in Britain — 8° — 18/- Camb. Press / $4.50 Macmillan, N.Y. — 92

Written fr. pt.-of-view of an anti-vaccinationist and adversary of germ-theory of disease, seeking to demonstr. that all epidemics advance to a maximum period of severity, and thence decline till extinct, and that therefore the diminutn. of small-pox is due to general causes acting on all diseases and not to vaccin. Apart fr. this bias, it is the first serious Engl. attempt at a system. study of epidemics, tracing them to their source, giving a scientific acc. of them, and weaving causes, appearance and consequences into a connected history : a wk. of much research, commencing w. yr. 664, and dealing w. pestilences prev. to Black Death (chiefly fr. famines), Leprosy in mediæv. Brit., Black Death (1348-9), Sweating Sickness (1485-1551), Plague, Gaol Fevers etc. in Tudor per., French Pox, Smallpox and Measles, and so on, ending w. Plague of 1666.

The most exhaustive and still the best bk. on the hist. of the Engl. stage during the period.

HAZLITT, W. C. [ed.] — The English Drama and Stage under the Stuarts and Tudors — s 4° Roxburgh Lib. — 69

A coll. of proclamns., statutes, letters, licences, petitns., warrants, tracts, etc., w. notes and index.

Strolling-Players' Life.

EGAN, Pierce — The Life of an Actor; 27 pl. etched by Theod. Lane and col. by hand 14/- — r 8° Pickering & Chatto [25] 92

Orig. written "to introduce a young man of talent to the notice of the public," viz. Theod. Lane, whose dwgs. are here reproduced. Descrs. the life of Peregrine Proteus fr. his first visit to "the house of call for actors" to the proud moment when, as manager to the Theatre Royal, he ushers the King into the royal box, a romantic progress, which, despite its antiquated mannerisms and penny-novel atmosphere, supplies truthful and vivacious sketches of the strolling-player's life of its day, 1825.

BESANT, Walt. [ed.] — Dorothy Wallis: an autobiography — 5/- ($1.50) — c 8° Longman — 92

A bonâ fide autobiography of a girl who resolved to win for herself an honourable position on the stage, delineating the day-to-day life of the mod. strolling actor in Engl. to-day.

Bath.

PENLEY, B. S. — The Bath Stage: a hist. of dram. represns. in Bath; ill. — 3/6 — c 8° Lewis & Son, Bath 92

Repr. fr. The Bath Herald. The celebrity of the Bath stage commenced practically in middle 18th cent., when Jno. PALMER managed the Orchard St. Theatre (opened 1750). Supplies some useful early informn. supplem. to GENEST [ut supra], who did not incl. Bath records with those of the Lond. theatres till a much later period.

COATES, Rob. [1772–1848].
Robinson, Jno. R. / Hunter H. — The Life of Robert Coates ; 2 ports. — c 8° 7/6 Low / $3 Scribner, N.Y. 81

An interesting life of an absurd W. Indian colonist, who flourished as a Bath beau while GEORGE iii. was king, and who died in the poverty he richly merited. In the Dict. of Natl. Biogr. he ranks as an "actor," tho' his performances, chiefly as an amateur, scarcely warrant this dignity. Amongst his nicknames were "Diamond Coates," "Romeo Coates," "Cock-a-doodle-doo Coates"—the last owing to his motto, "Whilst I live I'll crow," wh. appeared w. a brazen cock on his kettledrum-carriage drawn by white horses.

Flies and Fly-Fishing.

BEEVER, Jno. [d. 1859] Practical Fly-Fishing: founded on nature, ed. W. G. Collingwood — 3/6 c 8° Methuen [49] 93

L.P. (50) 10/6 nt. Spec. written as a guide to the angling of the Lake Country, author, a friend of RUSKIN, having lived at Thwaite Ho., Coniston. Of little practical value now, but interesting for its flavour of Ruskinism, and very prettily and daintily got up. Chap. on Char Fishing (wh. the ed. of 16.16. has vainly pursued on the spot and in the district) by A.+A. R. SEVERN; and memoir of author by editor. Orig. pub. sub nom. "ARUNDO."

FISHER, Maj. A. T. Rod and River: fly-fishing for salmon, trout, and grayling — 14/- — 8° Bentley 92

Conts. a good deal of informa. ab. salmon, grayling, trout and trout-flies, their habitns., modes of capture, tackle, etc. Spec. good on trout, their varieties, growth, breeding, etc., and chiefly valuable to the Southern chalk-stream fisher. A useful list of Salmon Flies.

TREDWELL, Dan. M. [Am.] — Monograph on Privately Illustrated Books — [c. 500 pp.] $5 — 8° Long Island — [82] 92

A very tastefully printed bk. (De Vinne Press, N.Y.), but full of blunders, inaccuracies and literary bêtises, showing that Grangerism (wh. still flourishes in U.S.—Mr. T. says there are 500 "illustrators" in N.Y.) may co-exist w. dense ignorance. It is the bk. of an "amateur dealer," redolent of crushed morocco and dollars, rather than of a bk.-lover ; and intended no doubt to be extra-ill. itself. It introduces many anecdotes of notables ; but if 99 bks. are to be ruined for the sake of turning one into a picture-gallery, a better excuse than this bk. can readily be found.

CASTELLANI, Prf. Carlo — L'Origine Tedesca e l'Orig. Olandese dell' Invenz. della Stampa — 8° Ongania, Venice — 90

A pamphlet by the prefect of St. Mark's Lib. in Venice. Gives the evidence in favour of the Germ. and Dutch claims in a lucid and uncontroversial style, clearly showing the consensus of antiquity in favour of Maintz : far more convincing than Dr. HESSELS' aggressive claims for Holland, tho' the two shd. be read as mutually complementary—and perhaps corrective.

VAN DER LINDE, Dr. A. — The Haarlem or Coster Legend of Invention of Printing, tr. J. H. Hessels — 5/- m 8° Blades — 71

With an introduction and a classified list of Costerian incunabula. A serious attack on the so-called historical evidence on wh. the Costerian claims are founded.

A careful pioneer essay on a very partially explored field, of consid. importance in hist. of origins of Eng. drama. SENECA was a popular writer with the men of the Renaiss., the whole theory of the Unities, agst. which the Romantic drama had to strive so hard, having been directly or indirectly derived from him. Commences w. acc. of the 16 cent. tr. of SENECA, and conts. in an Appendix a list of 25 direct quotns. fr. SENECA in var. Elizab. plays, and in another an anal. of the numerous Senecan passages in The Misfortunes of Arthur.

Essays on Chaucer's life, of the legends wh. have grown up round it, of his editors and critics and of the poems they have wrongfully fathered upon him, of the vicissitudes of his literary reputation, of the bks. read and of his religion (or scepticism). An extraordinary mass of information (some 1600 pp.), new and old ; diffuse and rather in the style of magazine articles, but still very valuable. The story of the var. edns. of Chaucer's text has never before been told so well, and in the hist. of his reputation Prf. Lounsbury breaks new ground. K § 24

Othello.

Turnbull, Wm. Robertson — Othello: a critical study — 15/- 8° Blackwood 92

Believing that SHAKSPERE'S "whole wk., taken together, may be said to be full of autobiogr. confidences," author attempts to trace the man in his play. Apart fr. this late nineteenth century absurdity, the bk. conts. much [even too much (392 8vo pp.)] sound and scholarly criticism.

Plots.

Ransome, Prf. Cyril — Short Studies of Shakespeare's Plots — 3/6 ($1) c 8° Macmillan 90

The plays dealt w. are Hamlet, Cæsar, Macbeth, Lear, Rich. ii., Othello, Coriolanus, Tempest.

Pott, Mrs. Hy. [Am.] — Francis Bacon and his Secret Society — c 8° $2 Schulte, Chic. / 8/6 Low 92

"An attempt to collect and unite the lost links of a long and strong chain.

White, Thos. W. — Our English Homer: Shakespeare historically considered — 6/- c 8° Low 92

Author has been "driven to the conclusion" that S. had nothing to do w. the composn. of the Plays, that BACON began the series by writing Hamlet, and was afterwards "employed to revise those wh. S. bought of other playwrights."

(b) Collier Emendations.

*Aitken, Geo. A. — The Life and Works of John Arbuthnot, M.D.; port. — 8° 16/- Clar. Press / $4 Macmillan, N. Y. 92

A thoroughly interesting and painstaking life of the kindly humorist, scholar and man of science, physician to Qn. ANNE and friend of SWIFT and POPE—ab. whom every member of the irritibile genus had a good word to say in an age when bitter personalities were more in fashion than panegyric.

BOSWELL, Jas. [1740–1795].

Fitzgerald, Percy — Life of James Boswell (of Auchinleck): w. acc. of his sayings, doings & writgs., 2 vols. — 8° 24/- Chatto / $7 Appleton, N. Y. 91

A cumbrous and slipshod work, but (as could not well have been avoided) of considerable interest. Beyond some letters of Boswell to Wilkes, conts. little information that is not better given in Dr. Rogers' memoir [ut B.B. K § 24] and the chap. entitled "Boswell Self-Revealed" is not likely to supplant Macaulay's caricature-portrait of Boswell [in his Essays—review of Croker's ed. of Boswell's Johnson (ut ib.)] wherein he finds an opportunity "to dust the varlet's jacket" or avenge himself on a polit. foe.

K § 24

Espinasse, Fcs. —in his Literary Recollections and Sketches, ut infra.

Larkin, Hy. Carlyle, and the Open Secret of his Life 8° 14/– Paul / $5.60 Scribner, N.Y. 86

The "open secret," briefly stated, is that so far fr. CARLYLE being a man of letters by preference, the darling idea of his soul was to be a man of affairs—a social regenerator of this age as Cromwell was of a past age. The idea is run very hard ; but the bk. conts. some sober and instructive criticism.

Nichol, Prf. Jno. Thomas Carlyle [English Men of Letters] c 8° 1/– ; cl. 1/6 Macmillan / 25*c.* Harper, N.Y. [92] 94

A good sketch of CARLYLE, w. some brilliant analysis of him as a polit. philosopher, a man of letters, a histora., and an ethical teacher.

Tyndall, Prf. Jno. Personal Recollections of Thos. Carlyle—in his New Fragments, ut K § 83.

COLERIDGE, Sam. Taylor [1772–1834] Letters, ed. Ern. Hartley Coleridge [gr'son.] [1785–1833] Heinemann in prep.

*Campbell, J. Dykes Life of Samuel Taylor Coleridge ; port. 10/6 ($3) 8° Macmillan 94

A revised repr. of the Introduction to his edn. of the Poetical Works [ut K § 68], an important and substantial piece of wk., furnishing an original and independent narrative of the events of C.'s life, comment, especially moralizing, being studiously avoided. All the stock biograph. material has been exam. and sifted, and fresh researches made.

CROSLAND, Mrs. Newton Landmarks of a Literary Life ; port. [1820–1892] c 8° 7/6 Low / $2 Scribner, N.Y. 93

An autobiography of a literary lady who has known many eminent men and women of the past seven decades.

CROSSE, Cornelia A. H. [= Mrs. Andr.] Red Letter Days of my Life, 2 vols.—ut K § 18.

Very interesting remins. of men and women of letters of the middle of the 19 cent. and of scientists who founded the Brit. Assoc. Repr. fr. Temple Bar.

A handsome repr. of the Standard Library Edn.

,, ,, Diary and Letters [abgd.], ed. W. C. Ward, 3 vols. ea. 2/6 c 8° Warne 90–91

Miss BURNEY'S Diary sparkles w. wit, lively anecdote and gossip, and is at the same time full of sound and discreet views of persons and things.

DAVIS, Thos. Osborne [1814–1846].

Duffy, Sir Chas. Gavan Thomas Davis : memoirs of an Irish patriot, 1840–1846 12/– 8° Paul 90

A good biogr. of the Irish nationalist poet, who nearly 50 yrs. ago inspired Young Ireland w. loftier aims. By an early friend : w. a good deal of political and literary correspondence of the period.

DE QUINCEY, Thos. [1785–1859].

Japp, Dr. Alex. H. De Quincey Memorials, 2 vols. ; ports. [w. intro., notes and narrative] 8° 30/– nt. Heinemann / $5 U.S. Bk. Co., N.Y. 91

With letters of COLERIDGE, the WORDSWORTHS (Dorothy WORDSWORTH'S spec. delightful), Hannah MORE, Prof. WILSON and others.

DICKENS, Chas. [1812–1870] Letters, ed. by his Sister-in-Law and Eldest Daughter 3/6 ($1) c 8° Macmillan [82] 93

A cheap edn. [Macmillan's 3/6 Series] of the bk. in B.B. K § 24. The edrs. are Miss Georgina HOGARTH and Miss DICKENS, and the Letters cover the period 1833–1870.

,, ,, Letters to Wilkie Collins, sel. Georgina Hogarth, & ed. Laur. Hutton [Am.] ; port. [fr. 1851 to 1870] 16° $1 Harper, N.Y. / 5/– Osgood 92

Reprinted fr. Harper's Magazine. Additl. to the many letters fr. DICKENS to COLLINS in the Dickens Corresp. Pleasant familiar letters, throwing however very little new light on the relations betw. the two authors.

Hughes, W. R. A Week's Tramp in Dickens-Land ; c. 100 ill. F. G. Kitton, H. Railton, etc. 8° 7/6 Chapman [92] 93 / $3.75 Estes & Lauriat, Bost. 91

Kitton, F. G. Chas. Dickens by Pen & Pencil: incl. anecdotes & reminiscences o.p. [w. 126/–] f° Sabin & Dexter 89–91

Consists of 13 pts. and 5 Supplements, and conts. a general outline of DICKENS' life, forming a framework to an extensive series of excellent portraits on steel, copper and wood, autogrs., etc. (over 100). Every Dickens collector will "want" it. It binds well as 2 vols.

Wright, Thos. Life of Charles Dickens in prep.

Johnson, Lionel — The Art of Thos. Hardy; etched port. by W. Strang — 5/- nt. f 8° Mathews & Lane 93

L.P. (150) 21/- nt. Conts. a bibliography of HARDY by Jno. LANE.

HAZLITT, Wm. [1778–1830] Liber Amoris, or the New Pygmalion, w. Intro. Rich. Le Gallienne 5/- nt. f 8° Mathews & Lane [23] 93

L.P. (50) 12/6 nt. Only once previously reprinted. A pretty edn. of a curious bk., the author's acc. of his own passion for his lodging-house keeper's daughter, a hopeless coquette, whom he eventually married and, by mutual consent, afterw. divorced. A study in pathology, rather than biography.

HOUGHTON, 1st Lord [Rich. Monckton MILNES; 1809–85].

Reid, T. Wemyss — Life, Letters & Friendships of Rich. Monckton Milnes, 1st Ld. Houghton, 2 vols.; 2 ports. 32/- ($5) — 8° Cassell 90

An interesting memoir of a man who for half a century occupied a conspicuous position in society—in the widest and best sense—not only in England, but throughout Europe.

HUNT, J. H. Leigh [1784–1859].

Johnson, Reg. Brimley — Introduction—to his edn. of Hunt's Essays and Poems, ut K § 83 [v. note thereon].

Monkhouse, Cosmo — Life of Leigh Hunt [Great Writers Series] 1/6 c 8° 2/6 — 8° Walter Scott 93

KEATS, Jno. [1796–1821] — Letters to his Family & Friends, ed. Prf. Sidney Colvin 6/-; red. to 5/- ($1.50) c 8° Macmillan 91

Omits all the poet's love-letters to Fanny BRAWNE. The true text of the American and miscell. letters here given consecutively and in proper order for the first time. KEATS does not shine as a letter-writer: his letters are garrulous, trivial, gushing—unrelieved by grace of style. Vide also the Life of Joseph Severn, ut I § 92 (wh. however conts. but little new as to Keats).

Watson, Wm. — The Punishment of Genius—in his Excursions in Criticism, ut K § 18.

A delightful autobiography.

MORLEY, Prf. Hy. [1822–94] Early Papers and Some Memories — 5/- c 8° Routledge 91

Conts. 20 odd pp. of autobiography, w. remin. of medical (MORLEY began life as a doctor) and literary life, chfly. repr. fr. periodicals, The Examiner, Household Words, etc.

MURRAY, Dav. Christie [1847; living] The Making of a Novelist; port. — 6/- c 8° Chatto 94

A series of vivid autobiogr. sketches by the novelist, who has been a journalist, dramatist, actor, soldier, penniless man-of-letters—and amateur tramp.

OLIPHANT, Laurence [1829–1888].

Leisching, Louis — Personal Reminiscences of Laurence Oliphant — 6*d.* — 8° Marshall Bros. 91

The author's name is frequently mentioned in Mrs. OLIPHANT'S Life, ut inf. His pamphlet supplies some supplem. matter of interest, but (fr. pt.-of-view of Brit. Evangelicism) regards Oliphant's life as "a lost one, save as a beacon to warn others."

*Oliphant, Mrs. [Marg.] Memoir of the Life of Laur. Oliphant and of Alice his Wife; ports. — 7/6 p 8° Blackwood [91] 92 / 2 v. $7 Harper, N.Y. 91

A sympathetic and very interesting life of the man, by his distant kinswoman and namesake, who, however, has no knowl. of, and quite fails to appreciate some of the main influences and condns. of his life. Its chief value therefore is as a skilfully-written chronicle of the romantic and adventurous incidents of his varied life.

K § 24

Smith, Haskett — For God and Humanity, 3 vols. — 25/6 p 8° Blackwood 91

A novel by a clergyman who embraced Oliphant's faith and became a member of the Haifa community. Its object is mainly biographical; its scenes laid chiefly in Palestine, at Haifa or in the Druse village of Dalieh. Oliphant's [=Cyril Gordon] views elucidated in course of the plot, wh. in itself is clumsy and amateurish.

PATER, Walt. [1839–1894] The Child in the House — [only 250 reprinted] Daniel's Priv. Press, Oxfd. [78] 90

Conts. remins. of his early yrs., and deals partic. w. his first impressions of death—"the fear of death intensified by the desire of beauty." Author had intended to have reissued it as a second ser. of his Imaginary Portraits [ut B.B. I § 90]. A colln. of PATER'S letters is also in contemplation.

PATTISON, Rev. Mark [1813–1884].

A sort of brief digest of Ruskin's various works on art.

" " The Life and Work of John Ruskin, 2 vols.; port. and ill. — r 8° 32/– Methuen / $5 Houghton, Boston 93

Edn. on handm. paper (300) 63/– ($15) nt., on Jap. paper 105/– nt. A comprehensive and overweighted wk., by RUSKIN'S Priv. Sec. and general assistant, and Editor of his Poems [ut K § 68]. Divides his career into 2 pts.—that of a writer on art and that of a writer on ethics. The hist. of Modern Painters is very well given. Conts. a good deal on the Pre-Raph. Movemt., and incl. 10 sketches by RUSKIN, now first pub., several ports. (1 col.) of him, sketches by Arth. SEVERN, R.I., etc.

*Cook, Edw. T. Studies in Ruskin: aspects of his wk. and teaching; 8 pl. and 5 cuts — 6/– c 8° G. Allen 91

L.P., w. 13 addit. autotypes here first reprod., 21/– nt. An excellent expos. of the "gospel acc. to Ruskin," descriptive of his wk. at Oxford, at the Working Men's Coll., in conn. w. the St. George's Guild, May Queen's and various industr. experimts. (w. a chap. on his rels. w. the booksellers), by an enthusiastic yet sober disciple, late Edr. Pall. Mall. Gaz., now edr. of Westmr. Gaz. Authoritative, yet not "authorized."

This is the journal wh. SCOTT began to keep in 1825, and in wh. he made entries, w. few intermissions, till 5 mos. before his death in 1832. LOCKHART in his Life of Scott [ut B.B. K § 24] abgd. and sometimes altered the passages wh. he quoted; the new matter here is nearly as valuable as that wh. LOCKHART pubd., and is of great interest.

*Familar Letters, ed. Dav. Douglas, 2 vols.; w. copious notes — 8° 32/– Douglas, Edin. 93 / $6 Houghton, Bost. 94

These letters are confined solely to those written to SCOTT'S family and intimate friends—MORRITT, RICHARDSON, Stewart ROSE, Miss SMITH, Joanna BAILLIE [of spec. interest], Lady ABERCORN and others, and range fr. 1797 to end of 1825, when the Journal begins. They are nearly all previously unpublished, and of great interest, full of "careless, inimitable beauties."

Mr. SAINTSBURY informs us that he has read some 2000 Fch. novels during the last 10 years, wh. may have something to do w. the fact that his criticism of Fch. literature is so inferior to his criticism of English. The authors here dealt with are Ant. HAMILTON, Alain René LESAGE, Chas. de BERNARD, Alex. DUMAS, Théoph. GAUTIER, Jules SANDEAU, Oct. FEUILLET, Gust. FLAUBERT, Henri MURGET and Vict. CHERBULIEZ, preceded by ess. on Pres. State of Fch. Novel.

DE VOLTAIRE, F. Arouet [1694–1778].

Ballantyne, Arch. Voltaire's Visit to England : 1726–1729 8/6 c 8° Smith & Elder 93

A useful essay on what VOLTAIRE said was the most important incident in his life, CARLYLE'S acc. of wh. is full of mistakes. Author was charged by J. Churton COLLINS [Athenæum, Nov., '93] w. having "appropriated almost all my matter—transcribed . . . my references, . . . adopted my conclusions," etc., charges rebutted and confuted [in same journal] by BALLANTYNE, who stated that the "MS. was entirely written, exactly as it is now printed, before I even knew that Mr. COLLINS had treated the subj. at all": a curious instance of the same literary materials yielding identically similar results.

Espinasse, Fcs. Voltaire [Great Writers] 1/6 16° Walter Scott 93

An excellent, impartial little bk., the fruit of long and assiduous study of the many-sided French philosopher. Something more than an abridgmt. of the author's Life of Voltaire, vol. i. (8° Chapman '66), of wh. the 2nd and 3rd vols. have not appeared yet ; and quite up to date and accurate. Good use is made of Gust. DESNOIRESTERRE'S *Voltaire et la Société au dix-huit. Both the above "books in the nude" have been very largely read. As contribs. to literature or biography they are quite valueless, but they cont. a curious self-portraitnre of a vain, egotistical and morbid Russian girl [resident in Paris], craving for notoriety—a piteous "human document." Shaw, G. Bernard The Quintessence of Ibsenism c 8° 2/6 Walter Scott / 25*c.* Tucker, Boston 91
The author, a humorist thinly disguised as a social philosopher, here seeks to show that a new social theory (wh. he expounds at length) is implicit in IBSEN'S dramas. The bk. would perhaps more correctly be entitled "The Quintessence of Shawism" (or Fabian-Socialism).
*Wicksteed, Rev. P. H. Four Lectures on Henrik Ibsen; port. [Dilettante Library] f 8° 2/6 Sonnenschein / 90*c.* Macmillan, N.Y. [91] 92

GOSSE in his Northern Studies [ut B.B. K § 41], Geo. MOORE in his Impress. and Opin. [ut K § 33].

42. SPANISH LITERATURE: HISTORY, BIOGRAPHY AND CRITICISM.

History.

Generally.

CLARKE, H. Butler Spanish Literature: an elementary handbook c 8° 6/- Sonnenschein / $1.60 Macmillan, N.Y. 93
In no sense a rival to TICKNOR [ut B.B. K § 42], wh. is incomparably the best, most critical and most interesting hist. of Span. liter. in English; but an excellent Introduction to the subject, w. judicious selns. fr. Span. wrs. [w. trs.], and a useful list of Span. bks. and edns. and of authorities on Span. liter. Author is Teacher of Span. at Univ. of Oxford.

Drama.

SCHAEFFER, Adolf Geschichte des Spanischen Nationaldramas, 2 vols. 16/- 8° Brockhaus, Leipzig 90
Not a history proper, but a laborious, accurate and methodical guide thro' the extensive poetical labyrinth of Old-Spanish comedy, supplying anal. of plots of a large number of dramas, under names of writers, (w. brief memoirs prefixed), and then classifying them acc. to subjects.

DE CERVANTES SAAVEDRA, Miguel [1547-1616].
*Kelly, Jas. Fitzmaurice Life of Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra 16/- 8° Chapman 92
A learned biographical, liter. and histor. study, rather too "special" for the general reader, but of great value to the student (assumes a knowl. of Gk., Lat., Fch. and Span.), partly on acc. of its numerous digressions [incl. essays on Pastoral Poetry, on the Influ. of Ital. writers on Span. (and Engl., espec. Elizab.) drama and poetry]. A very excellent bibliogr. fr. 1585 to 1892 is added, and an Appendix on the Canto de Caliope.
*de Navarrete Vida de Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra
The authority on wh. all subsequent biographies are practically founded.
*Watts, Hy. Edw. Cervantes [Great Writers Series] 1/6 16° Walter Scott 91
An excellent biography, abdgd. and popularized, fr. that in vol. i. of his tr. of Don Quixote [ut B.B. K § 58]; one of the best of the Great Writers Series. Good bibliogr. and index.

" Daphnis & Chloe, tr. Geo. Thornley [1657] *c.*40 ill. C. Ricketts & C. Shannon 42/– nt. s 4° Mathews & Lane 93
Only 210 copies printed. The illns., tho' fine in their way, seek to emulate the early Italian manner, but both Daphnis and Chloe appear as late-nineteenth cent. "æsthetic" damsels, lank and cadaverous, with none of the Arcadian beauty of the early Ital. designs. THORNLEY'S tr. is very quaint and charming : preferable to AMYOT'S.

RHYS, Prf. Jno. Studies in the Arthurian Legend 8° 12/6 Clar. Press / $2.25 Macmillan, N.Y. 91
A learned wk., full of research and suggestion, somewhat fantastically conjectural. The author's view is that there was both an historic Arthur and a Brythonic divinity of the same name, and that the group of legends wh. surround that name is of purely Welsh origin, hg. been carried into France by Welsh fableor or singers (endorsing Gaston PARIS but face Prf. FOERSTER and Prf. ZIMMER). The reasoning is mainly philological throughout. The bk. is in some sense a continuation of the author's Hibbert Lects. [ut B.B. A § 14], its chief object bg. to make Welsh liter. help to shed a light on the mass of legends conn. w. the name of Arthur. Of wide interest, for in all Engl. liter., fr. Spenser and Shaksp. to Swinburne and Tennyson, this legend has been the most pregnant in poetry, music and art. Vide also B § 15.

Disregarding BROOKE [nt 16.16. K § 50] and MATURIN [nt sup.] Miss EDGEWORTH was the first Irish novelist who "counts." Her novels [first collected, 14 vols. f 8° Lond. '25], well worth reissuing in a uniform ed., depict in a wonderfully graphic manner the irresponsible, free-living Irish gentry of their day, out-at-elbows, gay, tawdry and feasting whilst one famine after another swept thro' the land. Her prim children's books were written whilst The Absentee and Castle Rackrent were germinating.

,, ,, Astrophel and Stella and Defense of Poesie, ed. Dr. E. Flügel ; w. Germ. intro. and notes 6*m.* 8° Niemeyer, Halle 89

Until ARBER'S edn. of 1868 [ut B.B. K § 62] the wk. was always known as the Defence of Poetry, and ARBER'S theory that Hy. OLNEY'S edn. of 1595 (wh. he had discovered and fr. wh. his edn. is printed) was the editio princeps has been clearly proved to be wrong. Wm. PONSONBY having on 29 Nov. 1594 entered at Stat. Hall "a booke entituled A Treatise in Commendation of Poetrie or the Defense of Poesy, written by Sir Phillip Sidney." OLNEY'S entry was on 12 Apl. 1595 for "a booke entitled An Apologie for Poetrie," and to it is appended " This belongeth to Master Ponsonby by a former entrance, and an agreement is made between them whereby Master Ponsonby is to enjoy the copie [=copyright] according to the former entrance." COOK modernizes the spelling, SHUCKBURGH retains the old and repeats all printer's errors etc. In each edn. the intros. and notes (of ab. equal value) occupy twice as much space as the text.

MARY is repres. by the maid w. her broom (the civil sword) executing the commands of her master (Christ) and her mistress (the Church). The Flies are the Rom.-Caths., the Spiders the Protestants.

Kalendar of Shepherdes : ed. Dr. H. Oskar Sommer; w. Introd., glossary and index 42/- r 8° Paul 92

A photogr. facs. of the Paris ed. of 1503, w. 66 woodcuts, and a verbatim repr. of PYNSON'S ed. [Lond. 1506], its deficiencies suppl. fr. 3rd Engl. ed. [WYNKYN DE WORDE 1508–1528]. The researchful Prolegomena cont. a crit. treatise on all known Fch. and Engl. eds., sources of Fch. ed., its rel. to Engl. eds., acc. of the woodcuts. The wk. itself is a curious one—a medley of verse and prose, calculated for the purposes of a perpetual almanac, and contg. inter alia the Saints of the yr., movable feasts, signs of zodiac, coll. of provbs., system of ethics, politics, divinity, physiognomy, medicine, astrology and geography.

LYDGATE, Jno. [137(?)–144(?)] Storie of Thebes, ed. Dr. Axel Erdmann; w. notes, etc. 8° Chaucer Soc. in prep.

A careful and excellent edn. of a little-read but nevertheless powerful poet, who will survive for students, not for readers, of English belles lettres. The most import. completed wk., Death's Jest Book [1850], is nominally a drama in 5 acts, and all the rest of his wk., exc. a few lyrics and occas. poems, is also nominally dramatic ; but there never was anything less dramat. in substance than his admirable poetry in dialogue. His chief characteristic is his morbidity : there is scarcely a page without its sad, grotesque, gay or abhorrent imagery of the tomb. The Intro. gives for the 1st time the real story of BEDDOES' suicide.

MAETERLINCK, Maurice [c. 1863; living].

The Princess Maleine, and The Intruder, tr. Gerard Harry [v. badly]; w. intro. [T.] Hall Caine 5/- c 8° Heinemann 92

On the appearance of La Princesse Maleine in 1890 (Brussels), the author, hitherto known only to a small circle of amateurs, at once sprang into fame on the continent, owing chiefly to a flaming art. by Octave MIRBEAU in Le Figaro [Aug. 24th, 1890], wherein this wk. was estimated as "comparable—et oserai-je le dire?—supérieure en beauté à ce qu'il y a de plus beau dans Shakespeare." Wm. ARCHER'S art. in The Fortnightly Rev. [a Pessimist Playwright; Sept., 1890] first introduced the "Belgian Shakspere" to Englishmen; but his estimate is much less enthusiastic than MIRBEAU'S. Beerbohm TREE put an adapted version of The Intruder on the Haymarket stage [Matinée, Jan. 27th, 1892], but it showed small capabilities of acting well. As a brooding poet, a mystic, and a contemplative spectator of the comedy of death, whose wk. is couched, almost by a sort of accident, in dramatic form, MAETERLINCK will probably find a place in literature. His best wk. is no doubt Les Aveugles.

Essays and Poems: ed. Reg. Brimley Johnson, 2 vols.; w. Introd. and port. [Temple Library] pott 8° 10/6 nt. Dent / $4 Macmillan, N.Y. 91

The edr's. biogr. sketch seeks to "do justice to HUNT as a man": at any rate it annihilates the charge that DICKENS' sketch of him in Horace Skimpole [Bleak House] was a justifiable and true sketch, and shows that in his relations w. BYRON he was the injured party rather than the base ingrate BYRON'S biographers have sought to show him to have been. The selns. are good, esp. the verse ones. Good bibliogr.

v. GOETHE, Joh. Wolfg. [1749–1832] Maxims and Reflections, tr. T. Bailey Saunders — [Eversley Ser.] 5/- ($1.25) c 8° Macmillan — 93

A tr. of the greater pt. of the Sprüche in Prosa, a series of aphorisms and maxims on life and character, philos. liter., science and art, some of wh. orig. appeared in Die Wahlverwandtschaften [1809], some in Kunst u. Alterthum [1816–28], others in the 1829 ed. of Wilh. Meister, and others not pub. till after his death: i.e., all in his later period. They contain very "good things," and form a very companionable volume. Particularly well and lucidly tr.

" " — Nature-Aphorisms of Goethe, tr. T. Bailey Saunders — [pp. 15] c 8° Macmillan — 93

First appeared in 1783, in his Journal des Tiefurt, a MS. magazine priv. circulated in the Court of Weimar. Reported by G. Chr. TOBLER. They were inspired by GOETHE, then in his 34th year.

Italian: translated.

GRACIAN, Baltasar [–1658] The Art of Worldly Wisdom, tr. Jos. Jacobs; w. Intro. and notes — [Gold. Treas. Ser.] 2/6 nt. ($1) f 8° Macmillan — 92

A spirited, but not invariably accurate, tr. of the Oráculo Manual, a ser. of "ethical" maxims, subtle, keen, and largely un-moral, by a Span. Jesuit scholar and man of the world. They were greatly esteemed in Spain down to beg. of Fch. Revol., and trs. appeared in Engl., Fch., Germ., Ital., Polish, Hung., and Latin, since which time it has fallen out of repute in all countries exc. Germy., where several trs. have been made dur. present cent., notably that by Arth. SCHOPENHAUER, posthum. ed. J. FRAUENSTADT sub tit. "Hand-Orakel u. Kunst d. Weltklugheit," 2m. 12° Brockhaus, Lpz. (1861) '90. JACOBS, in his Introd., draws a good distinctn. betw. the Aphorism and the Maxim: "Many men have sought to give their views about man and about life in a pithy way; a few have tried to advise men in short sentences what to do in the various emergencies of life. The former have written aphorisms, the latter maxims. When the aphorism states a fact of human nature, a maxim advises a certain course of action. The aphorism is written in the indicative, the maxim in the imperative, mood."

Fiction.

CRAWFORD, F. Marion The Novel: what it is; port. 3/– (75*c.*) 18° Macmillan 93

A disappointing paper (108 very empty pp.) by the gifted novelist, whose answer to his own inquiry begs the whole question: "A novel is (or ought to be) a pocket theatre. Judge it by the same tests that you would apply to a play; insist that the illusion shall be perfect; and you will not be far wrong. As to the controversy between the realistic and romantic schools, why should a good novel not combine romance and reality in just proportions?"

PITMAN, [Sir] Is. — A History of Shorthand — [repr. fr. Phonetic Journal, 1884] 2/– c 8° Pitman [84] 91

A very one-sided performance, ignoring the mere existence of many other excellent recent (and rival) systems wh. are doing good work in Parliament, the Law Courts and among pressmen. Much space is given to demolishing defunct and worthless systems. Pitman's is still no doubt the best, however; but not the only good one.

Ausgrabungen zu Sendschirli [N. Syria], pt. i. — [Mittheiln. a. d. Orient. Samml. Berl.] 25*m.* f° Spemann, Berlin 93 in prg.

Contribns. by Dr. von LUSCHAN, the director of the expedns., Prf. SCHRADER, Prf. SACHAU. The lang. of the inscripp. has been the subj. of discussn., and seems to be a mixture of Aramaic and Hebr.

CAMPBELL, Prf. Jno. [Canad.] The Hittites : their inscriptions and their history, 2 vols.; pl. — 21/– nt. 8° Nimmo 91

Acc. to author, Hittite civilization has been ubiquitous. He surveys mankind "fr. China to Peru," and finds traces of it everywhere.

CONDER, Cpt. [Maj.] C. R. Altaic Hieroglyphs : a memoir, w. tr. of all known Hittite inscrs.; ill. — 5/– c 8° A. P. Watt 87

Seeks to show that the symbols are the prototypes whence the Cuneiform system has developed; that they have possibly a common origin w. the hieroglyphic syst. of Egypt; and that perhaps even the Chinese characters may have also developed fr. the original Altaic picture-writing. Author has also a wk. on the Tell el-Amarna tablets in prep. for Pal. Expl. Fd., in which he deals w. their importance for reconstructing the hist. and condition of Pal. in 14 cent. B.C. He believes that the Abiri referred to in them were the Hebrews. To cont. maps and 2 pl. of the Lachish inscription.

A clear and compreh. acc. of all that was known or conjectured up to 1892; well arrgd. and w. careful refs. to authorities. The arguments seeking to shew that the authors of the Hittite monumts. were the Hittites of the O.T., and of the Egypt., Assyr., and Vannic inscripp., are set forth w. great lucidity. The series, as far as pub., forms a valuable, if not indispensable, storehouse of Assyr. and Babyl. texts in transcriptions, w. trs. and in some cases notes. It is the latest wk. of the founder of Assyriology in Germy., who ab. 1870 commenced his career as an Assyriologist, and for a long time fought single-handed agst. heavy odds, the new study being not only ignored in Germy. but regarded by many eminent scholars as little better than charlatanism. His zeal was, however, in 1875, rewarded by the first chair in Assyriology.

XVII. Aryan (Indo-Germanic) Philology.

FICK, in the new ed. of his Vergleich. Wb. d. indogerm. Spr. [ut K § 120], proposes the word "Teutarian" as a substitute for "Indo-Germanic" or "Indo-European"; but it is too late to hope for its general acceptance now.

IX. Philosophy.

History.

Announced by Author at the Ninth Oriental Congress (Lond. 1892) as in prep. by him. The 1st vol. will be devoted to East Asiatic philos., the 2nd to that of West. Asia and that of Europe. Seeing that hitherto we know practically only one side of the thought of the intellectual world—the developmts. of occidental philos. fr. THALES to KANT and SCHOPENHAUER—a compreh. treatise by so learned a specialist as the author shd. prove highly valuable, affording us a view of a philos. quite independent of our own: the only real parallel to it obtainable.

To have simplified the study (as Mr. ELIOT has here done) of one of the most difficult languages of the world—not excl. Hungarian or even Turkish w. its initial impediment of the Arabic alphabet—is no mean feat of scholarship. The lang. possesses 15 distinct cases, 24 differentiated infinitive forms and a syntax at once elaborate and obscure. It is the first Finn. gram. in English, and conts. the only Syntax (exc. brief sketches) in any lang. more generally accessible than Swedish.

"Chinook Jargon."

HALE, Horatio Manual of the Oregon Trade Language [vocab., hist. sketch, specs.] 3/- c 8° Whittaker 90
The Chinook Jargon is of peculiar interest as affording the only known example of the evolution of a new lang. in quite recent times. Little more than 100 yrs. ago it was still unborn; at pres. moment many people speak it as their native tongue, and Mr. HALE (who in 1846 thought the jargon would disappear) is now of opin. that it will continue to be medium of intercourse (the lingua franca) betw. the differ. races of N.-W. The orig. nucleus of the vocab. was formed by English-speaking traders and Indians of Nootka Sound, who mutually learned a few words of each other's lang.: the Chinooks, taking it up, added over 100 words; and intercourse w. the Canad. voyageurs led to introd. of Fch. words. The vocab. was further augm. by onomatopoetic formatns. (e.g. liplip to boil; tumtum heart). The "root-stage" postulated for the prehist. periods of inflect. langs. is here an actual reality (tho' the "roots" are mostly polysyllabic); and, as in Chinese, almost any word may serve for noun, verb, adj. or adv. There are ab. 500 wds. in all, to wh. must be added compounds (e.g. ship-stick, a mast; stick-skin, bark of tree). The orig. of many words is v. amusing, e.g. Kintshautsh=English (fr. "King George"). At present there is no grammat. system. Will one be developed? [Author has resided since 1856 in Clinton, Ontario].

A complete and luxurious catalogue of all the Gk. papyri acquired by Brit. Mus. up to end of 1890, with full texts of all those that are not of a literary character. The texts are revised by KENYON, who has added Intros. and notes, as well as a valuable introd. sketch of the hist. of Gk. cursive writing on papyrus and elaborate Indices. The texts range fr. 3rd cent. B.C. to 8th A.D., and are of value as evidences of private life and manners in Greek Egypt, illustrating the business habits, occupations, legal formulæ, handwriting, arithmetic, etc., of a very important Hellenistic society. The facss. are most excellently prepared by the Autotype Co., and form the finest series of palæograph. reprodns. wh. has yet appeared anywhere.

Eight Lects. deliv. in 1890 in Johns Hopkins Univ., showing the chief characteristics of Gk. poets fr. the Homeric to the Alexandrian period (Menander) dwelling fully on the 5 poets whom the author regards as the most typical of the true Hellenic age—Homer, Pindar and the 3 Attic tragedians—and less fully on post-Euripidean poetry; and luminously illustrating the place of anc. Greece in the general hist. of poetry.

*MACKAIL, J. W. [ed. and tr.] Select Epigrams from the Greek Anthology 16/- ($5.50) 8° Longman 90

A seln., in revised texts, w. elabor. and very valuable Introd. (88 pp.), prose trs. (at ft. of page) and some notes, of ab. 500 of the best pieces fr. the Greek Anthology, wh., as pub. in the monumental edn. of Friedr. JACOBS [13 vols. r 8° Dyk, Lpz. 1794–1813 (fld. 66*m.*50)] is a corpus deriv. fr. many collns. and selns. by var. compilers in differ. ages contg. over 4,000 epigrams or "occasional poems" of all dates fr. B.C. 700 to A.D. 1200. Most of JACOBS' text is founded on a single Palatine (Heidelb.) MS., wh. represents (tho' not completely) the anthol. of CONSTANTINUS CEPHALAS, a Byzant. grammarian of ? 10 cent. Much of the Palat. anthol. belongs also to the shorter compiln. of MAXIMUS PLANUDES, who was ambassr. fr. Gk. Emp. to Venice in 1327; but there are ab. 400 epigrs. in the Planudean collns. which are not in the Palat., and ab. as many more preserved only by ATHENÆUS, DIOG. LAERT. and other gossips or grammarians. The Gk. Anthol., owing to recent discovs., is of much wider scope to-day than in the days of JACOBS.

L.P. (150) 10/- nt. The Introd., commentary and notes define the bearing of the new informn. on previously received notions of the hist. and polity of Athens. Regards the treatise as bg. "at least the outcome of ARISTOTLE'S inspiration and direction." Index.

Poste, E. [tr.] Aristotle on the Constitution of Athens : transl. & [slightly] annotated 3/6 ($1) c 8° Macmillan [91] 92

The 2nd edn. [1892] has a new Preface, in defence of Aristot. authorship of the treatise, explans. of techn. terms, and an outline of legal procedure in Athens.

*Reinach, Théod. [tr.] La République Athénienne d'Aristote 1/*r.*50 8° Hachette, Paris 91

The clearest, most accurate and cheapest tr., incl. an attempt at reconstrn. of text, and a brief but pregnant Introd. Claims the wk. as ARISTOTLE'S ; but admits interpolation of much alien matter.

Dictionary.

Stanford Dictionary of Anglicised Words and Phrases, ed. Dr. C. A. M. Fennell 4° 31/6 Camb. Press / Macmillan, N.Y. 92

A useful and interesting contrib. to Engl. lexicography; but its scope is much too wide, and illns. w. dates and refs. are frequently wanting. "Anglicized" is taken to mean (a) borrowed and wholly or partly naturalized, (b) used in Engl. liter. without naturalizn., (c) familiarized by frequent quotn. The wk. thus incl. 12,798 articles (treating of 10,927 words, 1,813 phrases, and 278 quotns., w. 2,708 cross-refs.). Mr. J. F. STANFORD, who had himself coll. a good sch. of materl., in 1882 left £5,000 for its compiln. and pubn., and the scheme for its constructn. was drawn up by Prfs. MAYOR, SKEAT, BENSLY, Alfis WRIGHT and POSTGATE.

Fiction.

Salomon and Marcolphus, Dyalogus betwixt [c. 1492] : ed. E. Gordon Duff [350 prin.] 10/6 nt. s 4° Nutt 92
A neat facs. of the unique copy in Bodl. Lib. of edn. printed [Antwp., c. 1492] by Gerard LEEU, one of the most import. printers of the Low Ctries., who exercised his craft at Gouda [1477–84] and later at Antwp. [1484–93], extending his operatns. to supplying bks. for the Engl. market dur. 1492–93, i.e. immed. after CAXTON'S death, when the Engl. press seems to have lost nearly all its vitality [e.g., Hist. of Jason, Hist. of Knight Paris and the Fair Vienne, Chronicles of Englde.]. The bk. itself in its Latin (prob. the original) versn. was one of the most popular stories of the Mid. Ages, and is the only one of wh. an Engl. tr. was made (or, at least, is extant). A second Engl. tr. (fr. French) was pub. by PYNSON 35 yrs. later, and DUFF mentions 4 vernac. German, as well as 23 Latin, editions.

Legends and Lives of the Saints.

The Great Collections.

(F) Legenda Aurea, tr. W. Caxton [prose ; (1484) 1487], ed. Fred. S. Ellis + Wm. Morris, 3 v. 126/– [w. £10 10*s.*] 4° Kelmsc. Pr. (Qu'itch) 92
With glossary, bibliogr., memoranda and index. Only 500 printed, w. front. by W. Burne JONES. Ed. fr. 1484 edn. (in Univ. Lib. Camb.). The Legenda Aurea was compiled in 13 cent. by JACOB de VORAGINE, Abp. of Genoa ; early in 14 cent. it was tr. into Fch. by JEAN BELET, whose vers. was worked over again by JEAN DE VIGNAY, w. addn. of 44 legends : the latter vers. was used in making an English Lives of the Saints c. 1438, and out of these books CAXTON made his. Of the 1st. ed. only 30 copies are known to exist. This is a delightful repr. on handmade paper, w. beautiful capitals designed by Morris and engr. by H. H. Hooper, one of the choicest productions of the modern press which will hand down the name of Mr. Morris' Kelmscott Press to future generations.

A new tr. The 8 ill. are good reprods. fr. contemp. portraits mostly fr. the series executed by Thos. LE LEU. A handsome vol. Author was sister of HENRI iii. and the 1st wife of HENRI iv. (the "Reine Margot" of DUMAS), and must not be confused w. the compiler of the Heptameron [ut sup., s.v. Fiction], whose great-niece she was, nor w. MARGUERITE DE VALOIS who married the Dke. of SAVOY (all three bg. interesting 16-cent. princesses). These memoirs were 1st tr. into Engl. by Rob. CODRINGTON in 1641 [not 1648, as stated in Preface (he also tr. the Heptam. in 1654)] : the best Fch. edn. is that of GUESSARD (Soc. de l'Hist. de Frce.), a tr. of whose notes are incorpor. here. The Bibl. Elzévir. edn., w. notes by L. LALANNE [o.p. (pb. 5*fr.*) 12° Daffis, Paris '58] is also a good one.
