Dear David

We are writing to follow up the phone conversation we had a couple of weeks ago and to confirm your involvement in the forthcoming exhibition at Museum of Croydon at Croydon Clocktower.

The Museum of Croydon is putting on an exhibition in October this year to celebrate World Mental Health Day.

The gallery is an impressive space with many visitors and we hope this will be a great opportunity for you.

We have enclosed the initial correspondence from the Museum of Croydon to give you a bit of background about the show. If you have any further questions please do not hesitate to give us a ring.

As we are sharing the wall space with work from the Bethlem Archives and Museum we will have a restricted amount of space so we will be asking for up to three works from you but at this point are unsure whether they will be able to hang all works. However a minimum of one piece will be certain.

We will be sending you an exhibition contract in a few weeks and this will state clearly what we will provide and what we will need from you.

Until then give us a call if you have any queries. We are in on Thursdays so leave us a message and we will get back to you as soon as possible.

Looking forward to working with you again.

Best wishes,

Karen & Beth.
