

A man in bed with vegetables sprouting from all parts of his body; as a result of taking an overdose of James Morison's vegetable pills. Coloured lithograph by C.J. Grant, 1831.

Contributors

Grant, C. J. active 1830-1852.

Publication/Creation

London (54 Leicester Sqre.) : J. Kendrick, 8 May 1831 ([London] Grays Inn Road : S. L...)

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/andrfpy6>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

wellcome collection

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

SINGULAR EFFECTS OF THE UNIVERSAL VEGETABLE PILLS ON A GREEN GROCER! A FACT!

Who Green'un like was order'd to live for the space of one Month upon Vegetable Diet & to Take during that time 132 Boxes of Vegetable Pills for the Cure of a Gangreen, & being caught in a Shower of Rain in the Green Fields in the evening of the 1st of April last, was put to Bed 'midst Shooting pains, & in the Morning presented the above Phenomenon of a Moving Kitchen Garden !!!

Query — Is he not one of the Productive Classes