

Surgical instruments used, and operations successfully carried out, by an English travelling operator claiming royal patronage. Line engraving, 16--.

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/p798vgr2>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org <https://wellcomecollection.org>

Christmas day: 66 Richard Gray once Seruant to Earle of Bedford Shott himselfe through y body With an iron Rammer it Went in at the Shoulder on the left Side and came four handfull out betwene the fifth and sixth Ribs three inches from his back bone on the right Side cured by me in six Weeks and is now living neare Woburn Abby 78

In the yeare 72 I Cut From the breast of the Widdow White aged 71 a Cancer the mouth of it was 21 inches wide it was soe large that in twenty years shee had not lifted her hand to her mouth I perfected the cure in six weeks: shee is now living and well in 78 at Serne Abby neare Dorchester

In the yeare 78 Ann Clarke aged 53 of Bere had halfe her lip part of her nose and part of her Cheeke eaten away with a Cancerous humour and a farmers daughter neare Dorchester in a worse Condition for shee had lost the sight of one of her eyes both cured without deformity

