

A spermatozoon chasing an egg, as an advertisement for condoms as a protection against unplanned pregnancy. Colour lithograph, 1994.

Contributors

Durex Information Service for Sexual Health.

Publication/Creation

Broxbourne (Hertfordshire, EN10 6LN) : Durex Information Service for Sexual Health, September 1994.

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/z3cfucuf>

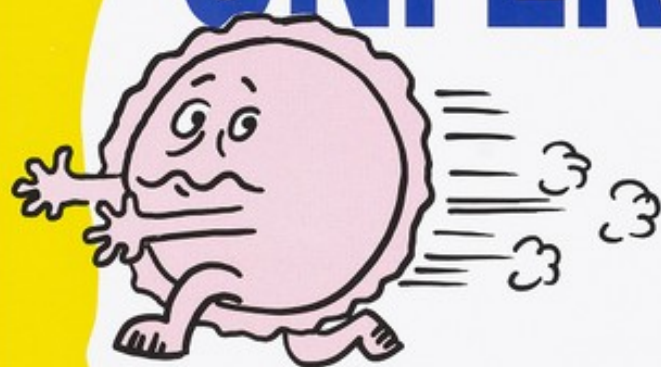

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

HOW DO YOU LIKE YOUR EGGS IN THE MORNING? FERTILISED OR UNFERTILISED?

Nowadays, when you have sex, you need to protect yourself. Condoms are the only sure way of reducing the risks of unplanned pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases including HIV/AIDS.

You can buy condoms from chemists, supermarkets, petrol stations and vending machines.

There's more to condoms than you think - check out the instructions next time you buy a pack.

DUREX INFORMATION SERVICE FOR SEXUAL HEALTH
LONDON INTERNATIONAL HOUSE,
BROXBORNE, HERTS. EN10 6LN

