

A woman who has lost her hair is standing in front of a mirror with a wig in her hands, there are bottles and potions on the table by her and a box on the floor at her feet. Colour lithograph, 18--.

Publication/Creation

1800-1899

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/h7q34cfr>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution license.

This licence permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original author and source are credited. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

With all your make up, I'm much afraid,
You're booked to become a poor old maid;
That you're powdered and painted it's easily seen,
You are fifty, although you make up to sixteen.
Be careful to fit your wig on tight,
If it blew off, Oh! what an awful sight.