

A man, half human and half skeleton. Coloured etching after R. Dighton, 17--.

Contributors

Dighton, Robert, 1752-1814.

Publication/Creation

London (No. 69 in St. Paul's churchyard) : printed for & sold by Bowles & Carver, [between 1700 and 1799]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/yr3gp8pj>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

The WAGES of SIN is DEATH. Rom VI. 23.

Man that is born of a Woman, is of few days, and full of trouble, He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down like the fleeth, also as a shadow, and continueth not. Job XIV. 1, 2.

All flesh is as grafs, and all the glory of Man, as the flower of grafs. 1 Peter. 2.

They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave. Job XV. 13.

This their way is their folly

When he dieth, he shall carry nothing away, his glory shall not descend after him. Psa XLIX.

Verily every Man at his best state is altogether vanity. Psaln XXXIX. 5.

The lofty looks of Man shall be humbled. Isa. II. 11.

It is appointed unto Men once to die, but after this the Judgment. Heb. IX. 27.

Here in the rich, the honour, the mind and great, See the fall's scale of happiness complete.

HERE LIES THE GREAT. False Marble! Where! Nothing but poor and fordid Dust lies Here.

REMEMBER DEATH