

Bethlem Hospital, London. Oil painting.

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/pwnuahhk>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution license.

This licence permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original author and source are credited. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

44669i

44669i

Old Bedlam

Old Bedlam, commonly called St. Dunstons in 1280 by Simon Fitzey and Fitz Alan, Prior of London, the place, and giving the title of priory, which was confirmed by King Henry III. the Mayor and Corporation of London from the Priory from the Corporation conveyed out of the place for the cause of Lunatick, or an infirm, to be kept in the hospitalization or cure of the patient admitted there. The Priory continued until the year 1534, when Henry VIII. Bishopric, was taken in 1534, and in the year 1546 of Ralph Dowdall, who was the first Lord of the Church of St. Botolph in London The Priory of London, at this Priory, and the the Priory of St. Dunstons, was dissolved, and the lands, tenements, and houses, were granted into the hands of the King, and
 the lands, tenements, and houses, were granted into the hands of the King, and

Bishopscote
LONDON