Extract from a letter from

Mr. G. Martin, Staplehurst.

July 8th 1923.

“My mare's legs are quite well now since I have given her two or three of the powders I had from you, but that is not all, they have given a beautiful gloss to her coat, and as soft as silk.

I never have used powders yet to compare with yours, by seeing the results in so short a time—barely a fortnight.”
