MEMORANDUM.

From

George S. Arkcoll,

Member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons.

to Miss M. Jones
Nab Hill.

Dear Miss Jones.

I much regret to say that your little dog is dead. It was a happy release for him. If you had called on Wednesday as you promised I would have asked leave to end his sufferings which I'm sure you would have given had you seen him. He had a relapse and never looked up again. He was a nice little animal and I thought would have been a credit to me but it wasn't to be. Meanwhile believe me to be

Yours faithfully
G. Arkcoll. V. S.
