HULL, 17TH NOVEMBER, 1866.

GENTLEMEN,

In answer to your advertisement, I beg to offer myself as a Candidate for the office of VETERINARY SURGEON to your honourable Board. My age is 41; and having had twenty years' experience, under the first Veterinary Surgeons of the Indian Army, I venture to assure you of my competency for the post.

Begging your consideration of the enclosed Testimonials,

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

T. B. WRIGHT.

To the CORPORATION of LIVERPOOL.

TESTIMONIALS.

Jullunder, October 25th, 1853.

At the request of Farrier Major T. B. WRIGHT, of the 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery, I am enabled to certify to his attention and care to the duties of my Hospital during the past two years. I have always found him intelligent, thoughtful, and very careful of the sick Horses under treatment. He has read and improved himself very much in veterinary knowledge and farriery. I consider him competent to undertake and treat the different diseases which Horses are subject to; he is a very good operator, and with much pre-judgment and general intelligence.

VINCENT NELSON,
Veterinary Surgeon, 3rd Brigade, Horse Artillery.

Meen Meer, August 20th, 1856.

Mr. HICKMAN, Veterinary Surgeon, 8th Light Cavalry, has much pleasure in testifying to Farrier Major T. B. WRIGHT's (of the 3rd Brigade, Bengal Horse Artillery,) ability in treating diseases of the Horse without having recourse to the usual unmedical means generally followed by Farriers in India. He is also a skilful operator, and very successful in his treatment of Horses that have been castrated.

I have much pleasure in certifying to Farrier-Major T. B. WRIGHT's, 3rd Brigade Bengal Horse Artillery, attention and care of my saddle and carriage horses for a period of eighteen months, and can highly recommend him for his superior skill in Veterinary Science. He is an excellent operator. I have been an eye witness to numberless operations which many in his profession have not the opportunity of performing.

EGGERTON MILMAN,
Brigadier Commanding Station of Jullundur.

Jullunder, April 20th, 1860.

Extract of Character from the Army, after Twenty-two Years' Service:—

“His conduct has been most exemplary, and he would, had he not been promoted, have been entitled to four good conduct badges.”

H. SWINHOE,
Lieut.-Col. Commanding 16th Brigade Royal Artillery.
