Blue Cross has cared for animals in distress since its establishment in 1897 as "Our Dumb Friends' League". Today, we have four hospitals and clinics giving free veterinary treatment to the pets of owners on low income; eleven animal branches providing shelter and new homes for unwanted or abandoned animals, a Horse Protection Scheme and mobile veterinary clinics in Dublin. We receive no state aid.

To Stephen and David

With Best Wishes for Christmas
and the New Year

from,
Paul

I hope you are both well. Life at CX is pretty miserable now that
"Mr. W." is in charge!
