CHRISTMAS

WITHOUT CRUELTY

AN IDEA WHOSE TIME HAS COME

ANIMAL
 AID

CHRISTMAS is supposed to be a time of peace on earth, but for animals it is a time of slaughter and suffering.

- 10 million turkeys - many as heavy as a nine year old child - hung upside down on a moving conveyor belt for up to six minutes before their throats are cut.
- Perfumes and soaps first tested by being dripped into rabbits' eyes or by poisoning other laboratory animals to death in toxicity tests.

• Puppies and kittens abandoned without food or shelter by families who discover that they are living creatures with their own needs and are not cuddly toys.

IT NEEDN'T BE LIKE THAT

With a little thought and effort, it is possible to enjoy the festive season without causing misery to animals. Send now for your free Christmas Without Cruelty magazine with delicious vegetarian recipes, cruelty-free gift ideas and advice.
