SHELL KILLS ANIMALS

at HUNTINGDON LIFE SCIENCES

YOUR MONEY PAYS FOR THIS

Huntingdon Life Sciences are Europe's largest animal testing lab, killing 500 animals every day in cruel and pointless experiments. HLS carry out tests on dogs, cats, monkeys, rabbits and horses. Shell carries out hideous experiments at HLS to test things like food packaging and detergents. Shell are killing animals at HLS NOW! If you use Shell you are paying for this. Please boycott Shell!

SECRET SUFFERING

Shell recently paid for a poisoning experiment at HLS to test a plasticiser for PVC. All the animals died in this test.

HLS have been exposed for animal cruelty four times in the last four years alone. In one exposé channel 4 secretly filmed beagle puppies being punched and terrified whilst staff laughed. This experiment was to test a herbicide for a Japanese company. In another investigation a monkey was filmed being cut open whilst still alive. Shell have seen the footage of animal abuse and still use HLS.

Tortured then thrown away -
This monkey was killed in the UK.

DIRTY PAST AND PRESENT

Shell have a long history of environmental destruction and involvement in human rights abuses. Shell were implicated in the execution of nine land rights campaigners in Nigeria. Shell was condemned worldwide for trying to dump the oil rig Brent Spar at sea which would have devastated marine and birdlife. For the first time we can now prove Shell are also involved in animal torture.

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

We as consumers can stop this animal cruelty. If you buy your petrol at Shell you are contributing to animal cruelty. So please boycott Shell and let them know that your money will not be used to kill animals at HLS.

Voice your disgust by ringing Shell on FREEPHONE 0800 446640, 0800 006008 and 0800 7313137.
