 THE BEST AND CHEAPEST FOOD FOR DOGS.

SALMON, WALKER, & SALMON,
 PHENIX BISCUIT WORKS, RATCLIFF CROSS, LONDON, E.,

(LATE JOSEPH SALMON, FIRST BAKER IN LONDON OF MEAT BISCUIT FOR DOGS,)

Having recently increased their Machinery, are now prepared to go more extensively into this manufacture.

The Proprietors, in bringing these Biscuits more fully under the notice of Consumers, only ask a trial—the article will sufficiently commend itself. Special attention is called to the fact that each Biscuit is distinctly marked thus:

*The Goods will be delivered to Rail or Craft, or any part of London, Free.
 For Price and particulars apply as above, or to any of our Agents.*

Editorial Notice in "Land and Water," March 6, 1875.

"THE 'CITY' MEAT BISCUIT.—Of the many forms of Dog Biscuits which of late years have been produced by different firms, that prepared under the above title by Messrs. Salmon, Walker, & Salmon, appears gradually to be finding favour among owners of dogs who study economy in procuring wholesome food for their dogs. Among a number of testimonials which have been forwarded to the makers, are several from owners of large kennels, who appear generally to approve of the 'City' Biscuits. We have lately received a letter from an M. F. H., who writes in reference to these biscuits:—'The biscuits you sent me were soaked in boiling water till quite soft, and in that state the dogs I gave them to liked them, and did well upon them.'"

TESTIMONIALS.

Greyhound Farm, Godstone, Surrey, March 13, 1875.

DEAR SIR,

I have much pleasure in stating that I have given your Meat Biscuits a good trial. Keeping so many sporting dogs as I do, and using so many of your biscuits, I can strongly recommend them as a suitable food—my dogs doing well on them, and my kennels keeping free from disease.

Yours respectfully,

Messrs. Salmon, Walker & Co.

F. G. FARMER.

Seaton Carew, West Hartlepool, Dec. 17, 1874.

DEAR SIR,

Having used your Dog Biscuits for upwards of twelve months, I have found them equal, if not superior, to any I have previously used from other manufacturers. I may add that my dogs were never in better working condition than they have been this season, nor so nice and fine in their skin, which shows health. You are at liberty to make what use you please of these remarks.

I am, yours truly,

Messrs. Salmon, Walker & Co., London.

JOHN BAKEWELL.

Harrowsley, Horley, 19th Feb., 1874.

DEAR SIR,

I have fed the dogs I keep solely on your Meat Biscuits for some time, and have found them most convenient for feeding. The dogs fed upon them—some used in the field, and a pet dog in the house—are in most excellent health and condition. Coats healthy looking, &c.

I am, yours truly,

Messrs. Salmon, Walker, & Salmon.

I am, Gentlemen, yours truly,
