Dear Sir or Madam,

Year Book of the Royal Society, 1954

In accordance with a resolution of Council of 5 November 1953, the information given in the Year Book after the names in the list of Fellows has been reduced to a standard minimum, the principle followed being to give only the name, present post (or, if none, the last scientific post held) and addresses; honours and decorations awarded by the Sovereign to be shown as well as Nobel prizes, medals, lectures and research appointments connected with the Royal Society itself; only degrees which determine the correct form of courtesy address to be shown; owing to its particular connexion with the Royal Society, membership of The Athenaeum to be included.

Insofar as the office has been supplied with information by Fellows the above principles have been followed, but the Assistant Secretary would welcome fuller information from the Fellows for the 1955 Year Book.

Yours faithfully,

E. J. SALISBURY
D. BRUNT
