* OFFER SUBJECT TO CONDITIONS

All you have to do is switch from your current supplier of vials to Phase Separations, and you are guaranteed cost savings and scientific expertise with the broadest selection. Also, for a limited time, you can earn a free Waters™ Autosampler, Phase Separations flowmeter, Jour Solvent-Saver or Phase Separations mobile phase filtering system for your laboratory.

The rewards can be even greater when you consider Phase Separations as your single source supplier. Our full line of chromatography columns, sample preparation products, HPLC supplies and accessories include the foremost quality names — such as Waters, Chromacol, Rheodyne, Hamilton and Gelman Sciences.

We combine product quality and breadth with over thirty years of experience — enabling us to provide full technical support for all the products we supply.

Phase Separations gives you the convenience, fast delivery and savings you expect from a single source. Call us today, or return the business reply card for more information and your free catalogue.
