Dear Professor Franklin,

Herewith at last the reprint you requested. I apologise for the long delay, which was apparently due to some major catastrophe involving the whole of the Cambridge University Press.

Yours sincerely

David Sinden.

Dear Professor Franklin,

Many thanks for your letter asking for reprints of the articles on the Anatomical Congress. As you will probably have surmised, the reason for the shameful delay in answering it is that I have been waiting for the reprints of the article in the J. Anat. to turn up. I am afraid that so far there is no sign of them, so I am writing this in case you think your letter miscarried or something. I will send one along as soon as I get it, and meanwhile am enclosing a couple of the other ones. I am afraid that I did not get any copies of the one which appeared in the Oxford Magazine. Thank you again for your interest and congratulations

Yours sincerely,

David S. Inglis
