OUR REF.                      YOUR REF.

CROSS STREET,
FISH DOCKS,
GRIMSBY.

Dear Sir,

In response to your request we have much pleasure in sending you a selection of recipe leaflets, also some specimens of advertisements we are using. These contain a few hints on cooking fish which may prove of interest to you.

It is most encouraging to us to receive such applications as yours. Now that the importance of diet to health and efficiency is being so widely stressed full use should be made of the fish with which the seas surrounding our island home are teeming all the year round.

By means of the "Eat More Fish" Campaign it is hoped to give fish the prominence it deserves on the national menu and to restore the fishing industry to its former prosperity.

You will notice that many of these dishes call for fishes which may be unfamiliar to you. These fishes are both delicious and low in price. They will make it easy for you to have fish regularly with economy.

Yours faithfully,
The British Trawlers' Federation, Ltd.
