This is the age of plastics and in plastic barrels and boxes we are leading the way.

Many of our finest articles, formerly delivered in wooden barrels, cases or in tins, are now packed in super hygienic plastic barrels (kegs) or small plastic boxes; unbreakable and watertight.

Fine colors that appeal to the eye: ivory and red or in transparent material so that you can see the high quality of the fish packed within. We also prepare all kinds of attractive vacuum sealed bags. These fine articles may not fail on your display.

Yzermans combines the best quality Dutch herring products with the handiest packaging.

Easy for your customer – easy for you.
