"UNION JACK."

Lay the cross back on either side; that on the right shows the Flag of St. George for England. The left shows the cross of St. Patrick for Ireland. The centre shows the cross of St. Andrew for Scotland.

Now lay the cross of St. George on that of St. Andrew, and we have the "JACK" as ordered by James I; he always signed his name "JACQUES": hence the name "UNION JACK."

Now raise the cross of St. George, lay the cross of St. Patrick on that of St. Andrew, replace that of St. George, and we have the "UNION JACK."
