LETTER MAILS BY AIR.

Letters and Postcards for most European countries prepaid at the ordinary international postage rates, viz., Letters $2\frac{1}{2}$ d. first oz., $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. each additional oz., Postcards $1\frac{1}{2}$ d., are now forwarded by air or surface route whichever offers the quicker delivery ; and all Letters and Postcards for certain Empire countries to which the letter postage rate is $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. per half ounce (see table of Imperial and Foreign postage rates) are forwarded by air in ordinary course. No air mail label is required in either case.

Surcharged Air Mail Services are available to most other countries. Full particulars of air postage rates, etc., are given in the Air Mail Leaflet ; copies of the Leaflet and a supply of Air Mail labels can be obtained without charge at any Post Office.

Nature's Remedy for INDIGESTION

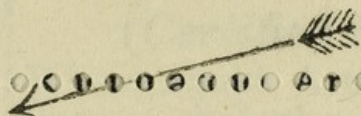

Bragg's Charcoal removes the very cause of indigestion instead of deadening the pain. It is a non-aperient, drugless treatment—the charcoal simply absorbs the poisons and impurities and then carries them out of the body. For a week's supply of Bragg's Charcoal Biscuits, etc., send coupon with 1½d. stamp (to cover part postage) to:— J. L. BRAGG LTD. (Dept. P. 46) 60 Beaconsfield Rd., London, N.11.
