The Gluten-Free Bakers

See

details

All bread shown here is gluten-free.

Ian Nixon, Lifestyle's baker, is a Coeliac and has twenty five years experience in the baking industry.

"I am making fresh gluten-free bread available to Coeliacs throughout the country. The bread is baked and then sent the same day by an overnight despatch service. The bread is delivered to your door, home or office, the next day, I am also producing rolls, pizza bases, shortcrust pastry – ready to roll. I know how much I missed fresh bread and I believe this is the most exciting development since I was diagnosed twenty eight years ago."

- Mail Order - I bake to order, your fresh gluten-free bread is delivered direct to your door from the bakery.
- 24 hour service - I bake and despatch the same day. The fresh bread arrives the next day at your door, home or office.
- Fresh - My bread is fresh, it will keep for 4-5 days and is suitable for home freezing for up to 3 months.
- Quality - I only use the best gluten-free ingredients in my bread, I do not add unnecessary preservatives and additives. The shelf life of my bread is not artificially extended. My bread does not need to be refreshed before eating.

- Visits - I welcome visits from Coeliac groups to see how these delicious gluten-free products are made.
