TODAY MOST PEOPLE ARE

about just what goes in to the food they eat, and about the way in which it is made. Some people have to avoid certain ingredients - dairy products or caffeine, for example - and so have a special reason for seeking out flavourful alternatives to the foods they cannot eat.

Granny Ann biscuits and confectionery are part of the Itona range of fine foods, made to the highest standards of quality with your family's good health and enjoyment in mind. They are wholly vegetarian and include a number of products which can be enjoyed by people with dietary restrictions. Look for the Itona and Granny Ann labels at your local health food store.
