Balti Night

Indian Take-away

BALTI cooking is the latest trend in Indian restaurants, very popular in Midlands this new style of cuisine and preparation has many initiators in the South but few practitioners of the art. At Balti Night we are pleased to announce that we have enlisted the support of an excellent Balti cooking chef had of the Curry Club of Great Britain, his recent Balti curry hand book, was top of the best sellers list here he gives us a brief insight into the history behind our latest discovery. Balti cooking originated centuries ago in the Himalayas mountain region of Pakistan Kashmir in the province known as Baltistan. The cold high atmosphere there demanded a simple but effective cooking method, the Balti is literary a cooking but it with a rounded bottom like a wok with two handles. Balti food is freshly prepared and healthy because the rapid stir-frying process retains the goodness off the food, whole spices are roasted and ground in the Balti Night kitchen to create the most aromatic spice mixture. These spices combined with the use of the fresh herbs like coriander, fenugreek and mint gives it a distinctive taste.
