Wellcome

ACT UP MANCHESTER is disgusted that the major drug companies refuse to work together to optimise research into HIV and AIDS relief. Drug companies seem to consider profits more important than cures. After more than 12 years and billions of pounds there is still no cure for AIDS.

The Wellcome Foundation net the manufactures of AZT (traded under the name Erro neit's which is over-dendy two-drugs licensed for the testimes of AZDS (traded under the name Erro neit's which is over-dendy two-drugs licensed for the testimes of AZDS opportunit allocitoson. Wellcome encourage doctors to prescribe the maximum dotages topolitosis (A done the thins born reduced a number of times since the drug was first licensed), which costs the NOIS ever LYO per patient per month. Wellcomes are also pressing for AZTs to be given to persons who nee HIV positive (Those who have count interouts to drive this the visus that tends to AZDS, but are as present perfectly healthy) in an attempt to drive the count of AZDS. Logisticy this unders torus, but these have been un conclosive tests that early treatment with AZT will delay the const of AZDS.

expensive to justify in their precisions committee, and those in the USA are forced to pay for the drug out of their own pockets should they for whatever reason not have sufficient health whatever reisson not have nullicious health insurance cover.

It is for these reasons first ACT-UP took the irsue in hand in February to bring this message to the people of Manchester.

Dersood in black, and lead by a seven foot gime resper, ACT-UP helds a fasmed procession with cellins, and beauers and reprises music which must list way from Proceasily Gustens to which cells must be a few processions of the centure cell fastion on Market Store. Boots in one of the large-partecialists of Wellersone products. In the 10°C.
