

A black man and woman chat to another black man with a bicycle who holds a pack of condoms and wears a t-shirt with the logo for Blackliners; background incorporates repeated images of the heart and penis; advertisement for the Blackliners support group for black people affected by HIV and AIDS. Colour lithograph, 1992.

Publication/Creation

London (49 Effra Road, Brixton, SW2 1BZ) : Blackliners, 1992.

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/z79rmj5m>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

WHAT'S SO TOUGH AND MANLY ABOUT RISKING YOUR PARTNER'S LIFE?

LOVE SAFELY USE A CONDOM.

BLACKLINERS provides a number of services for black people affected by AIDS and HIV,
for their families friends and partners.

Services provided by BLACKLINERS
by paid staff and volunteers:
Emotional and practical support
Counseling, Advice on welfare and benefits,
Buddying/Befriending, Housing, Education on Safer Sex and Information on HIV prevention.

For further information
contact BLACKLINERS
49 Effra Road BRIXTON
LONDON SW2 1BZ

Telephone HELPLINE 071 - 738 5274
mon - friday 10.00 AM - 6.00 PM