

Aerial view of an AIDS memorial event in front of the White House in Washington surrounded by close-up photographs of people involved; advertisement for Lifeline, a project to support those affected by AIDS. Colour lithograph.

Publication/Creation

[Washington, D.C.] : U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Social Security Administration, [between 1990 and 1999]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/nn99hf97>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

wellcome
collection

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

Lifeline

Benefits from Social Security A Lifeline for People with AIDS

Could you, or someone you know, benefit from the two cash payment programs — Social Security Disability Insurance and Supplemental Security Income — administered by Social Security?

Would the health insurance coverage under Medicare and Medicaid, that often accompanies these benefit programs, help you, or someone you know, who has HIV infection?

Don't wait to find out more about this lifeline of benefits from Social Security. For more information and confidential assistance in applying for these benefits, visit your nearest Social Security office or call toll-free 1-800-SSA-1213.