DECLARATION OF PURITY.

I, Edwin McClellan, Managing Director of Doan's Backache Kidney Pill Co., of 8, Wells Street, Oxford Street, London, W., do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows:—

"The Pills put up under the title of 'Doan's Backache Kidney Pills,' are made from the purest extracts of roots and herbs, and do not contain any calomel, mercury, arsenic, strychnine, bromides, cocaine, opium, morphine—no narcotics in any form—nor any injurious or harmful drugs whatever; and that they may be taken by the youngest child or the weakest invalid with perfect safety.

"Furthermore, that the medicine was discovered by the Canadian Quakers seventy-one years ago, and is to-day made from precisely the same formula as the Quakers used.

"And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of the Statutory Declarations Act, 1835 "
