

A condom called Proud Pete with speech bubbles warning parents to talk to their children about AIDS; advertisement for AIDS hotlines by the Pharmacists Planning Service. Colour lithograph, 1992.

Publication/Creation

California (200 Gate Five road, P.O. Box 1336, Sausalito, CA 94966) : PPSI, Pharmacists Planning Service, 1992.

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/skmqcsuc>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Proud Pete says:

Parents: Talk to your children
about condoms...

...before your doctor talks to them about AIDS.

Make sure your children and you know
the facts about Sexually Transmitted Diseases.
If you don't have the facts your children might get them too late... from your doctor!

For information and facts on AIDS call:

1-800-342-AIDS

(National STD hotline)

1-800-344-SIDA

(Spanish language hotline)

Sponsored by  Pharmacists Planning Service, Inc.

■ California Council on Sexually Transmitted Diseases ■ The Condom Resource Center ■ American Association for Public Health Pharmacists ■ International Association for Public Health Pharmacists
200 Gate Five Road P.O. Box 1336 Sausalito, CA 94966 415-332-4066

© PPSI 1992