A woman holds a black child wearing a stripy top and braces who has AIDS; an advertisement for The Aids Health Project. Lithograph.

Publication/Creation

San Francisco: The Aids Health Project, [between 1900 and 1999]

Persistent URL

https://wellcomecollection.org/works/n7nwu48q

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

You Don't Have To Look Sick To Have AIDS

M en get it. Women get it. Even cbildren get AIDS.

It's a virus.
Children can be infected before they're born if their mothers bave it.

Protect yourself. Protect your children. Get tested.

Treatment will keep you bealthy if you bave the virus. If you don't, you can make sure you don't get it.

Telephone for a blood test. It's free.

You can't afford to be sick. Call today.

415-621-4858