

An owl spreads its wings clutching its prey beneath the moon; warning that AIDS is a prolonged death by the American Indian Health Care Association. Colour lithograph by Christopher Sheriff, 1989.

Publication/Creation

Minnesota (245 East 6th East Street, Suite 499, St. Paul, MN 55101) : American Indian Health Care Association, 1989 (Minneapolis (Minnesota) : Bolger Publications/Creative Printing)

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/v2rtdrc6>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

wellcome
collection

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

AIDS IS NOT A QUICK KILL

The owl represents prophecy and is also an omen of prolonged illness or death.

American Indian Health Care Association 245 East 6th Street, St. Paul MN 55101

Concept and photograph by Christopher Sheriff. Moon composite by Prism Studios, Minneapolis, Minnesota.
Our thanks to the Lee & Rose Warner Nature Center/Science Museum of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minnesota.