

The backs of the heads of men and women representing an advertisement for anonymous HIV/AIDS testing and the AIDS hotline in Canada. Colour lithograph.

Publication/Creation

[Canada] : AIDS Hotline, [between 1900 and 1999]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/gvcvgr4>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

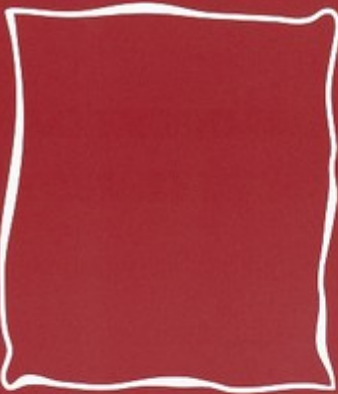

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

HIV/AIDS Testing

ANONYMOUS TESTING

You can be tested anonymously at a designated Anonymous Testing Clinic. Call for an appointment using just a first name. No one will ask for your full name and your name will not be recorded or reported.

CONFIDENTIAL TESTING

You can be tested confidentially by your doctor. The result from the lab will be identified by a code known only to you and your doctor. Your test results may be recorded in your medical file.

For more information, call the AIDS Hotline at 1-425-2437 (toll free),
your Local Health Unit,
or your Local Community AIDS Organization.