

A heart pierced with an arrow and a warning to couples to use condoms: an advertisement for safe sex by Health and Welfare Canada. Colour lithograph.

Contributors

Canada. Health and Welfare Canada.

Publication/Creation

[Ottawa (?), Canada] : Health and Welfare Canada, [between 1900 and 1999]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/y7js7azw>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

If Mr. Right refuses to wear
a condom, he's Wrong.

In Canada, most women who get AIDS get it from having unsafe sex.

You may not know whether he's infected.

He may not know.

If you care for one another, take care of one another.

Health and Welfare
Canada

Santé et Bien-être social
Canada

Issued by Health and Welfare Canada as part of its ongoing commitment to the National AIDS Strategy.

Canada