

Native American children in a variety of poses suggesting blindness and hiding representing a warning that we isolate ourselves from HIV/AIDS; advertisement about AIDS education and clinical services for native Indian women and children by the Seattle Indian Health Board. Colour lithograph.

Publication/Creation

Seattle (611-12th Ave. S./P.O. Box 3364, Seattle, WA 98114) : Seattle Indian Health Board, [between 1900 and 1999]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/pf84phjb>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

OUR CHILDREN, OUR FUTURE

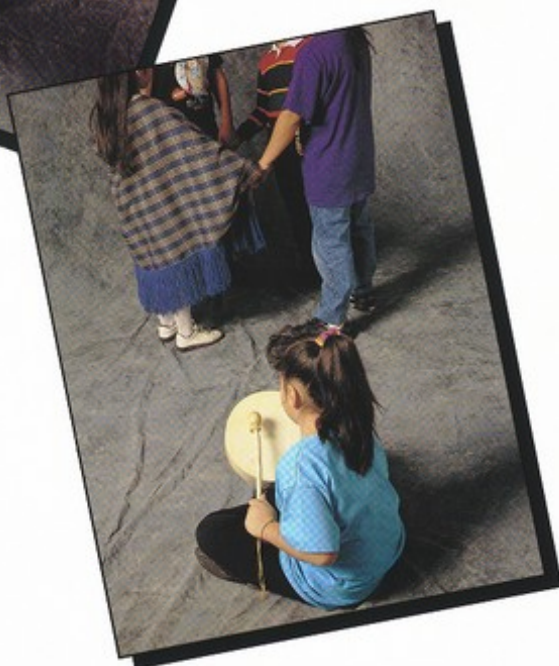

We "blind" ourselves, ...

we "hide", ...

And we "isolate"
ourselves from HIV/AIDS.

Let's "celebrate"
by educating ourselves.

The Northwest Family Center, Pediatric AIDS Clinical Trials Unit, and The Seattle Indian Health Board offer supportive & clinical services to Native women, pregnant women, and children who may already be infected with the virus. Please contact Connie at 223-3476 or Pauline at 324-9360 Ext. 808 for further information.

Funded by: Children's Hospital & Medical Center

Produced by: Seattle Indian Health Board
611-12th Ave. S./P.O. Box 3364
Seattle, WA 98114/206-324-9360

