"The last time I was here would have been about six months ago, I was with this guy. We were having a few drinks ,enjoying ourselves, we didn't realize how late it had got.

Afterwards we went to my place, and one thing led to another. I remember thinking about protection, but I knew him, and I was on the pill. I only wish I had. You see I saw him yesterday, he said he had some news."

"He had just been confirmed HIV+."
