

The back view of a bald-headed man holding a telephone to his ear representing a man whose family have deserted him because he has AIDS; advertisement for the New Zealand AIDS Prevention Program. Lithograph by Albert Sword.

Publication/Creation

[Auckland] (New Zealand) : New Zealand AIDS Foundation, [between 1990 and 1999]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/g43a278p>

License and attribution

Conditions of use: it is possible this item is protected by copyright and/or related rights. You are free to use this item in any way that is permitted by the copyright and related rights legislation that applies to your use. For other uses you need to obtain permission from the rights-holder(s).

wellcome collection

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

Derek lost his family to AIDS.

One year later,

they're still not talking to him.

The law may have changed. But prejudice and discrimination still occur in our community. Young or old. Gay or straight. Positive or negative... we all need support to stay safe.

It's what you do that matters, not who you are. HIV doesn't care. Do you...?

