

Numerous children's faces with a message about AIDS related orphans in the Pacific; advertisement by the Pacific Islands AIDS and STD Prevention Programme (PIASPP). Colour lithograph by André Passa, 1993.

Contributors

World Health Organization.

Publication/Creation

Nouméa (B.P. D5, Nouméa Cedex, New Caledonia) : Pacific Islands AIDS and STD Prevention Programme (PIASPP), 1993 (Auckland (New Zealand) : Stredder Print Limited)

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/h9j4ru5q>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

wellcome
collection

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

AIDS IF you're not worried about it

What about us?

By the year 2000, there will be over 10 million AIDS related orphans in the world.

We in the Pacific owe it to our children to protect them from this catastrophe.

Produced by the Pacific Islands AIDS and STD Prevention Programme (PIASPP)
South Pacific Commission, B.P. 05, Noumea-Cedex, New Caledonia.
Photography by André Fiane
Design and layout by André Fiane
Funded by WHO, AIDAR and USAID.
Printed by Sirebird Print Limited, Auckland, New Zealand, 1993