

A woman touches the face of a man on the platform of a train station; representing an advertisement for information about AIDS by the Ministère de la Santé de la Communauté française, Belgium. Colour lithograph, 199-.

Contributors

Belgium. Ministère de la Santé de la Communauté française.

Publication/Creation

[Brussels, Belgium] : Ministère de la Santé de la Communauté française, [between 1990 and 1999]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/x53rzc4f>

License and attribution

Conditions of use: it is possible this item is protected by copyright and/or related rights. You are free to use this item in any way that is permitted by the copyright and related rights legislation that applies to your use. For other uses you need to obtain permission from the rights-holder(s).

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

A man and a woman are shown in a close, romantic embrace on what appears to be a train platform. The man, on the left, is wearing a blue and white plaid shirt and has his hand near the woman's face. The woman, on the right, is wearing a black leather jacket and has her hand on the man's neck. They are looking at each other with affection. The background is slightly blurred, showing the structure of a train station.

Il y a des mots d'amour qu'il faut oser se dire.

A DEUX, ON EST PLUS FORT POUR SE PROTEGER DU SIDA.

