HE'S NOT IMMORTAL. HE'S JUST YOUNG.

He's also gay. Busy enjoying life, making new friends. It's easy at his age to forget about AIDS. To feel invulnerable, that there's no need to worry. The fact is that many gay men now becoming infected are young.

That doesn't mean no more sex. But it does mean taking more care. If you want to know exactly what that means, call one of the following numbers. For understanding, advice or help.

THE NATIONAL AIDS HELPLINE ON 0800 547 123, THE TERENCE HIGGINS TRUST ON 071 242 1010, OR THE LONDON LESBIAN AND GAY SWITCHBOARD ON 071 437 7324.
