A DELICIOUS ARTICLE OF CONFECTIONERY, guaranteed to contain 25 per cent. of ALLEN & HANBURYS' PURE EXTRACT OF MALT, "Patent No. 1506," the valuable properties of which cannot be overestimated.—(Vide Report.)

QUEEN ANNE STREET, LONDON, W.

I consider "PASCALL'S GOLDEN MALTEX"—in which is incorporated 25 per cent. of Allen & Hanburys' Malt Extract—an excellent and agreeable substitute for Cod Liver Oil, but with this advantage that they assist and do not impair digestion; and both adults and children take them without any difficulty, as they are a most delicious compound.

I feel I can scarcely speak too highly of their qualities for giving power to weak delicate children, phthisical patients, and infirm persons with feeble digestion.
