INTERNATIONAL BAZAAR FOR ANIMAL WELFARE

to be held at the Caxton Hall, off Victoria Street, London, S.W.1

on Tuesday, 31st October, 1967, from 10.45 to 6.00

UFAW's stall at this Bazaar is held to provide funds used mainly for the education of overseas personnel in the care and general treatment of animals — and particularly those kept on farms, used in laboratories, and killed for food. There is great opportunity for extension of this work. Will you help by sending a gift for sale on the stall, or by sending a donation specifically for the proceeds of the stall, in lieu of a gift ?

There is insufficient space on the stall for large objects, and we should particularly appreciate anything suitable for Christmas presents (such as jewellery, scarves, aprons, shopping bags, toys for pets to play with, etc.) or home-made jams, chutneys, scones, or cakes that are easily carried; in fact, anything that you yourself would feel inclined to buy from our stall !

Parcels or donations should be sent, please, to the Secretary of UFAW, 7a Lamb's Conduit Passage, London, W.C.1, and not to the Caxton Hall. We should be grateful if they could reach UFAW by 27th October.
