UFAW OVERSEAS

International Bazaar for Animal Welfare: Tuesday 29th October, 1968.

UFAW's only source of income for its educational work overseas is the profit made at its stall at the International Bazaar. Additional funds are urgently required, for without them the work cannot be extended nor even kept to its present level.

Will you help by sending something to be sold on the stall, or by sending a donation instead?

Jams, chutneys and home-made cakes are always sold out almost as soon as the Bazaar opens and would be particularly welcome, as would jewellery and any small items suitable for Christmas presents. But the stall will not be restricted to any particular items and anything (provided it is not too big, for there is very little room) will be gratefully received.

If you cannot send a parcel, a special donation instead would be equally appreciated and would be paid directly into UFAW's Overseas Aid Fund.

The address to which contributions should be sent is as follows:

UFAW (Overseas)
230 High Street,
Potters Bar, Herts.

Further details of the Bazaar are given on the enclosed yellow sheet, and it is hoped that as many as possible of UFAW's supporters who live within reach will attend it. A complimentary ticket is also enclosed.
