March 9th, 1908.

Madam,

In reply to your letter received this morning I note that you will accept the two guineas for the picture, for which amount I sent you a cheque on Thursday last.

I am surprised to hear that you have negotiated the post-dated cheque for four pounds which I sent you. You were not entitled to do so until the time stated had elapsed; it was most unbusiness-like. As I informed you when I forwarded you the cheque for two guineas I had stopped the cheque at the Bank, therefore the person to whom you have given it will not be able to get any money for it.

Kindly obtain this cheque without delay, and send it back to me by return post.

Yours truly,

c/o Epporth & Co.,

February 27th, 1902.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your postcard addressed to my residence, 26, Radipale Road, I should be glad to have the Dutch painting of the dentist on approval, and to save time I am sending you a post-dated cheque for the amount of four pounds.

Kindly send the picture to the above address, and I will let you know my decision on it at once.

I am sorry that the other picture you mention of the men playing cards would not be of any use to me.

Yours truly,

A. Green, Esq.,

Madam,

Yours to hand with respect to the picture this morning.

I am sorry I cannot give you two pounds ten for it. Its very outside value to me is two guineas, and in case you are willing to accept this I enclose a cheque for that amount. Meanwhile I have stopped the cheque for four pounds which was payable on the 7th inst. If you accept my offer, please return me the cheque for four pounds by return post; if not kindly return both cheques at once, and I will forward the picture to any address you may mention. I may say that we had to pay several shillings carriage on the box you sent it in.

Yours truly,

Mrs. A. Spence.

March 3rd, 1903.

Madam,

The picture arrived this morning. I am sorry to say that on examining it I find that it is not worth anything like four pounds to me. The outside I could give for it would be two pounds. If you cannot accept my offer kindly let me know to whom I shall forward it, and please return the cheque cheque you hold.

If you accept the offer, which I assure you is a good one, kindly send me postal orders for two pounds, and the cheque can then be passed.

Yours truly,

Mrs. A. Green,
