HURRY, DR. J. B. READING.

1913

10 October 1913.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you very cordially for presenting the certificate signed by John Abernethy, the pharmacopoeia of a Kaffir doctor and the Greek lamp to the Historical Medical Museum.

I am deeply sensible of your kindness in presenting these interesting objects to the permanent collection and in helping me to make it as complete as possible.

I quite understand that the Court Apothecary's Day Book, for the loan of which we are much indebted to you, must be returned to the Reading Pathological Society when the Museum closes on October 31st.

Again thanking you,

I am,

Yours very truly,

H. S. W.

Dr. J.B. Hurry,
Westfield,
Reading.

H. E. Williams Esq

Dear Sir

I am very glad to hear that the Medical Museum is to become a permanent Institution.

The volume which I sent you on behalf of the Reading Pathological Society must be returned when the Museum closes on Oct. 31.

The objects which I sent from my own Museum I have pleasure in presenting as a gift to the Medical Museum, provided they are duly exhibited, and the donor's name appended.

With cordial

good wishes for the future of the Museum,

Yours faithfully

J. B. Hurry.
