Dear Sir

Our regulations especially state that the cost of our rooms is £18 p term. (There would be 2 terms in the Winter Session and 1 in the Summer) or £50. for the Academic year. The latter sum being payable half in October, and half in January. You were good enough to pay £25 in October. And the other half is now due. I am very sorry if you have in any way misunderstood our rules.

Yours truly

Madam.

The enclosed Account should have been handed to you last week. The Secretary has charged for the Term instead of the Half Year. The amount of 4/7 was due for Buttery on June 5.

We regret that you should be put to any trouble.

I am, Madam

Yours obediently

Dear Mr Cunningham

I am sorry to trouble you but shall be much obliged if you will kindly explain one or two points in our Mrs K.C. accounts which we cannot quite understand -

On the 2^d Feb my husband paid by cheque £29 .. 12 .. 4⁶ for Rooms Buttery &c - will you kindly tell me for what 6 mos: that ^{sum was} paid - The next thing paid was this was of course up to the time he left On May 26th £ 2.. 3.. 9 for Fuel & Butter^x - Our son was not in London after the end of March & understood that - as he was away thro' illness - the cost of his dinners would be taken off for the summer term, also that - as Mr ~~Barron~~^{Warr} occupied his rooms for some time & ~~paid~~ £ 2 ^{was paid} into his office that too would be deducted.

Would you kindly see if this has been done, as it is not quite clear by the bills.
Also my son does not understand

10.2, J. 28/10
The bill just sent in - he thought the rooms were paid for to Oct. - & that therefore as per told me they would not be charged for after ~~Oct~~ - it would be ^{6 months}

the half of £27.10.0 ~~less the~~ ~~dinner not had~~ - & in fact £13.15.0 - less the dinner he has not had by being obliged to leave - Also he keeps me to say that he does not think the Buttery to have to can belong to him as he was not in London after March His father paid Buttery &c in May - Could it be for Mr. B.?

I am sorry to give this trouble but I think you would rather that he should understand the facts

My son I'm the same boy today is sitting on a well as he was tho' this ~~black~~ wretched weather is much against him. Love truly yours

R. Longmore,

Dear Madam

I am quite ready to allow you £6. for the dinner which you have not had eat.
And £2. which was paid for the time his friend occupied his room.

The sum for a further term for your house room is £20.
And I enclose the Bill.

Account for 4/7 for goods supplied to him on June 5.
I understood he came to the College on that day and had lunch with 2 friends. If he is wrong in this statement, the share will of course be deducted.

If therefore you deduct £0. from the account due to him, the balance will be the same due.

Yours truly yours

Wm. G. Langer

Wm. Longmore

P.S. I see that by mistake the balance charged him is £10 only for this term bookends of £20 which is the right amount. but 7 pence is the amount of the error.
