Dear Sir,

I am sending, under separate cover, the translation of the Oath of Hippocrates. It is I think a better translation than the one you mentioned.

Faithfully yours,

Dr. H. Kerr,

Dear Sir,

Your letter addressed to Messrs. Burroughs Wellcome & Co. Snow Hill Buildings, has been forwarded to me, with reference to the facsimile of an old parchment containing the Hippocratic Oath that was issued by a firm of druggists. I remember seeing a copy of this reprint eight or nine years ago, and my recollection is it was issued by the Antikamnia Co., U.S., but I am not certain. I regret I cannot tell you where a copy of it can be obtained at the present time, or I should have been very pleased to have done so. We have in this Museum a full translation of the Oath of Hippocrates, printed and set up in large type, about three feet long. If you would care to have a copy of this I should be pleased to send you one.

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

Dear Sirs,

Some years ago one of the big drug manufacturers issued as an advertisement the fac-simile of an old parchment containing the Hippocratic Oath. I am very anxious to have a copy of this, and if the issue was yours, I shall be greatly obliged if you can let me have one; or if not, if you will advise me as to where it can be obtained.

I shall be glad to defray the cost, of course.

Yours faithfully,
