Dear Sir,

67 Cornhill, E.C.

London, 15th July 1913.

Dear Sir

We beg to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your letter of 14th Inst
contents of which have our best attention.

We regret having troubled you about the Mosquito Nets
which were returned

We are,

Yours faithfully,

B. W. & Co.

7th March 1913.

Dear Sirs,

We desire to thank you for so kindly lending us the Mosquito Net which will be returned to you as soon as possible.

Again thanking you for your kindness,

We are,

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your letter of the 9th inst. I would state that the two mosquito nets were returned to you directly we had finished with them by our messenger at the end of March. He distinctly remembers handing them over at your establishment.

Again thanking you for the loan of same,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

Messrs. S.W. Silver & Co.,

Dear Sirs,

With reference to the 2 Mesquito Nets we lent you in March last for exhibition, we shall be pleased to hear if the same are still in use for that purpose, or if we can collect them from any address.

We are, Dear Sirs,

yours faithfully,
for the coy.

RECEIVED FROM WIGMORE STREET

Feb. 28th 1918.

Messrs S. R. Silver & Co., Sax Court, Cornhill, E.C.

Dear Sirs,

Confirming my conversation with you on the telephone this afternoon, I am desirous of borrowing a green mosquito net complete of a suitable size for a full size camp bed. It is required for the use of demonstrating the exact effect produced upon a sleeper beneath, such demonstration being required by an artist engaged in painting a picture. I would take every care of the net and see that it was returned to you unharmed. If you can see your way to oblige me, I should need to keep the article for a fortnight. Kindly let me know by telephone (3681, Mayfair) if you can accede to my request, and when it would be convenient for my man to collect.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Yours faithfully,
Henry S. Helicore
