Edinburgh.
May, 29. 1905.

Dear Mr. Wellcome,

I have heard from my brother, who will do what he can for you in Sweden, but he would like a little more detailed information as to when & where the exhibition is to take place. I enclose address at the foot of this letter

so perhaps you would be good enough

& send any information direct to him.

Believe me

Yours truly

E. Djurberg.

The address is.

Dr. E. Djurberg

10 Hornsgatan

Söder

Stockholm

Sweden.

Madam,

I beg to thank you for so kindly sending me your brother's name in connection with the historical medical exhibition. I have communicated with him on the matter.

Again thanking you for your kindness,

I am,

Yours very truly,

Miss E. Djurberg,
Royal Victoria Hospital,
Craigleith, Edinburgh.

Madam,

Many thanks for your postcard of the 11th inst., and for so kindly assisting me by forwarding the prospectus of the historical medical exhibition to your brother in Sweden, who I hope will be able to loan me something of interest.

Again thanking you for your kind interest in the matter,

I am,

Yours very truly,

Miss E. Djerberg,
Royal Victoria Hospital,
Edinburgh.

Being in receipt of your request for articles or information for proposed medical exhibition, I regret to say I am unable to render any assistance.
I have instead forwarded papers to my brother who is a medical man & practising in Stockholm, Sweden, with request that he will do his best to assist you in every possible way.

Believe me

Yours truly

E. Darwin
