Dear Sir,

Your letter to Dr J. R. Philpots my deceased Father did not reach him before his death in Jan 1917, & it has been returned to me.

When his possessions in New Zealand are sent to me, I hope to be able to send you what he promised for your museum.

Faithfully yours

Dr. Philpots.

Dear Sir,

Please accept our very cordial thanks for so kindly sending us the old copy of Aristotle and the antique pair of guinea scales which we are very pleased to have for this Museum.

We much appreciate your kindness in sending these objects which will be placed in the permanent collection here, and which will greatly add to its interest.

Again thanking you,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

Dear Sir,

Your letter addressed to Messrs. Burroughs Wellcome & Co. has been forwarded to me. We shall be very pleased to accept the copy of Aristotle, 1776, and the guinea weighing machine which you so kindly offer for this Museum. If you could send them to us by parcel post, we shall be very glad to have them, and place them with other objects in the collection.

With many thanks for your kindness,

Faithfully yours.

Gentlemen

I have a copy of Aristotle dated 1776
The 31st Edition. bound in leather, some leaves. I am afraid a few of the illustrations are missing.

I have also a Guinea weighing machine brass mitten, enclosed in a mahogany case. it belonged to an old Liller in the Thames district New Zealand. If you would care to add them to your Collection of Curios, I shall be very pleased to forward same on hearing from you. I quite intend asking your very much respected Representative (Mr Topley) on his last visit if he thought you would like to have them.
Yours faithfully
J. R. Phipps
